A Pointer. Schenckelmann's dogger in the wood which signifies love in one of the northern Indian dialects. What would be the result if our Eugene boys should take to using this word instead of the old one? It is to prevent mistakes which might wreck the happiness of a lifetime that we warn you, girls, that if your fellow should suddenly drop on his knees with agony depicted in his countenance, and begin to say Schenckelmann—don't get frightened and run for the doctor; he's not going to have a fit, he is only trying to intensify the expression of his devotion.

Crito's Correspondence.

EGEGNE CITY, March 28, 1883. EDITOR STANDARD:—And certain it was that the scramble went on, for petitions and recommendations flowed in upon the Republican executive council like ants into a sugar horn. They came in so fast and were so well recommended as to character, ability and availability that the executive council were contended for a time, but concluded to wait until all the precincts of Lane could be heard from.

REGULAR. The County Court slighted Richardson and Long Tom precincts on the jury list for 1883. The "banter boys" too honest for jurors?
