W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

Call for a State Convention of the W. C. T. U.

To all Women's Temperance Societies, of whatever name; also, to pastors of churches, and to Christian women of the State of Oregon:

DEAR FRIENDS:—There will be a convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the State held in Portland, June 19 and 20, for the purpose of organizing a State body. Miss Frances E. Willard, President of the Woman's National Christian Temperance Union, and Miss Anna Gordon, and perhaps other Christian workers from a distance will be present to aid us.

The "Union" has auxiliaries all over the country, and is gaining in interest, in numbers, and in importance every day. Its influence is being felt in every direction, and a reform is begun, which, with God's continued help and blessing, will result in great good, if not in the complete downfall of the national sin of intemperance. The central idea of all our work is to release the body and soul from thralldom to Satan, and to enthrone Christ as Redeemer and Lord in the individual heart, and his spirit in the home and in the State.

We invite three delegates from every woman's temperance society in the State. We also invite any woman who has the temperance cause at heart, whether she belongs to any organization or not, to come and learn what women are doing in the land, and to take home with her such information, documents, etc., as shall enable her to organize a Woman's Christian Temperance Union in her own locality.

Pastors of churches of every denomination are requested to appoint one lady delegate from their churches. Entertainment will be furnished to delegates.

A committee will be in waiting on the arrival of the trains on the evening of the 18th and morning of the 19th to direct delegates to their places of entertainment, and it is requested that they wear the usual Woman's Temperance badge—a small bow of white ribbon. Any coming at other times will please report at the convention.

All the temperance people of the State, men and women, are urged to co-operate in this convention, and in helping forward this work "for God and Home and Native Land."

Mrs. H. K. HIXES.

State Pres't W. C. T. U.

Any further information will be cheerfully given by letter.

Appointments in Washington Territory, also east of the Cascade mountains in Oregon, will be made after the convention, and will be announced as soon as determined.

After completing these engagements Miss Willard, accompanied by her Private Secretary, Miss Anna Gordon, will visit and organize in all the leading cities and towns of Washington Territory, British Columbia, Montana, Idaho, Utah, Wyoming, Colorado, Nebraska, Minnesota and Manitoba. This is the tenth year since the organization of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and its officers purpose to introduce the society in every town of ten thousand inhabitants and over, as the best manner of signaling this epoch in temperance work. The society is now organized in three thousand towns and cities of the United States, and has seventy-five thousand members as its estimated constituency in 1883.

Mrs. Lucas, the sister of John Bright, is President of the British W. C. T. U., and Mrs. D. B. Chisholm, of Hamilton, Canada, is President of the Canadian W. C. T. U. Miss Willard and these are in correspondence relative to a simultaneous movement for such an increase in the number of local auxiliaries as will make this the most notable year's organizing ever known in temperance annals.

DEAR FRIENDS: Much as we all appreciate the kindness shown to Miss Willard in the receptions everywhere tendered her and the callers who desire to pay her their respects, we are obliged to say that she can not do justice to these demands upon her time, and strength and justice also to her public work. Will you, therefore, carefully observe the following points:

1. On her arrival let her go quietly and at once to a home where she can remain throughout her stay, not being transferred even for one meal.

2. Let her rest between her meetings, receiving no calls, as she cannot meet our friends in public and in private also.

These suggestions apply in full force to Miss Gordon, who is not well and cannot do more than help and care for Miss Willard. The above is published at Miss Willard's request.

Mrs. H. K. HIXES.

Pres. Oregon State W. C. T. U.

A Model Confession.

Several years ago, in a Western town, a young lawyer, a member of a large church, got drunk. The brethren said he must confess. He demurred. He knew the members to be good people, but they had their faults, such as driving sharp bargains, screwing the laborer down to poor wages, loaning money at illegal rates, misrepresenting articles they had for sale, etc. But they were good people, and pressed the lawyer to come before the meeting and own up his sin to having taken a glass too much, for they were temperance people and abhorred intemperance. The sinner went to confession, found a large gathering of brethren and sisters, whose bowed heads rose and whose eyes glistened with pure delight as the lawyer began his confession: "I confess," he said, "that I never took ten percent. for money." On that confession down went a brother's head with a groan. "I never turned a poor man from my door who needed food and shelter." Down went another. "I confess I never sold a skunk milk cheese for a new one," whereupon a woman shrieked for mercy. "I confess that I have not been Pharisaical and self-righteous, and have not sought to injure or persecute those who have not happened to agree with me," when down dropped numerous heads. "I confess that I never played the hypocrite, and do not lie, and that I have not used religion as a cloak," when down went several heads, and among them the heads of every one who was so anxious that he should confess. "But," continued the sinner, "I have been drunk, and am very sorry for it," whereupon the meeting quickly dispersed.

A table showing the value of agricultural implements used in the various States makes a favorable showing for Oregon, which stands fourth in the list, being surpassed only by New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania, in the order named, and followed by California as fifth in the list. The State last named is far ahead of all others in the per capita value of farm products, the same being $752 per farm hand, while New Jersey comes next with $501. In the Southern States, the average value of farm implements per capita is small, being in Alabama but $10. The nature of the crops produced is doubtless the reason of this vast difference, the cotton fields not permitting the use of machinery as in the case of the grain fields of other States.

The Republicans see the handwriting on the wall, consequently they are exercised as to whom the Democrats propose electing President in 1884. Ben Butler's ambition points that way and they are trying to make the people believe that he will be the Democratic candidate. Doubtless he would make a much better President than the Republicans have given us; but there plenty of statesmen in our party that are head and shoulders above Ben.
