

Mr. Tilden's Health.

One who reads the daily telegraphic dispatches regularly must be frequently amused at the absurd and contradictory rumors that find their way into print as a part of the news of the day.

The last report, following one of the day before that Tilden was never more hale or hearty, is that he can't move his hands to his head, and has to be fed by attendants.

Judge Hoadley.

The nomination of Judge Hoadley for Governor by the Ohio Democrats is a certain indication of success in the canvass which it inaugurates.

Governor Crittenden of Missouri has done a very sensible thing in refusing to accept a watch and chain, offered as a testimonial by several heavy bankers of the State.

The republicans in the last Congress, at the behest of the manufacturing monopoly, reduced the tariff on wool and raised it on woolen goods.

Carpenter and Humphrey, two of California's railroad commissioners have been captured by Stanford & Co. and refuse to reduce freights and fares.

An erroneous impression prevails that Gen. Sheridan, on the retracy of Gen. Sherman, will become general of the army. He cannot be so promoted.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Republican party in Ohio has cut its throat in its anxiety to approve and win over the Prohibitionist, the cold-water politicians have, as usual, nominated a full State ticket, and, to add insult to injury, denounce the Republican temperance measures.—Portland Standard.

Mrs Larrabee, for the death of her husband Col. C. H. Larrabee, by a railroad accident on the Southern Pacific last January, sued the company for $50,000.

The Hon. Horatio Seymour has just passed his seventy-third birthday. Although feeling the inroads of time, he retains the use of his faculties in a high degree.
