by the principals before the sale is binding. 12. Rules 3, 4 and 5 shall only apply to the crop of 1883 and subsequent crops.

Look to Your Mortgages.

ECGENE CITY, July 19, 1883. EDITOR GUARD: It will be of interest to the citizens of Lane County, if, you will call attention to the following facts:

Under the Mortgage Tax Law, enacted by the last Legislature, the County Clerk is rejuired to furnish to the Assessor, an the 1st day of August, an abstract of all unsatisfied mortgages showing the ownard of, the same and the amounts due thereou; and it is made the duty of the Assessor to assess such debt. and security for the full amount that arpears from the records to be owing, unless the land mortgaged is not worth as much be seen to be appreciated. sessed. There are, mg Lane County records, over one thousand posatisfied mortgages, representing in the aggregate $1,412,135 of indebted area. Of this amount I think fully one third, and prohibly time-half, is paid, and not setisfied of record. Of the unpaid mortgages a large number, in the ordinary run of business, must have been partially paid, yet very few have any credits entered. Under this condition of affairs, unless the holders of paid and unpaid mortgages come forward and satisfy the same of record, and the proper credit thereon, unavoidable complications will arise which will curtail heavy upon the treasury of Lane County. Sherman's Circus

[Victoria Colonist.]

The matince given yesterday afternoor opened with the entry of eight lady and gentlemen riders whose various evolutions were very interesting and executed with a degree of grace that reflect great credit on the participants. The scholars of the Convent school and their teachers were present and thoroughly enjoyed the quips and antics of the clowns and the thorough obedience that the horses Tommy, Barney and Jack, showed their master. The benches were well lined with spectators and their interest suttained till the close of the performance. In the evening the tent was again packed to its utmost capacity by an audience which at times was actually entranced by the daring feats of the gymnasts. But the three horses, Tommy, Barney and Jack, most successfully, compete with the Morosco brothers for the palm of popular approbation. These animals are living proofs of the marvelous extent to which the brute creation is susceptible of being educated by the kind and gentle treatment of man. In these horses Mr Sherman has a treasure beyond the purchase of money. Mdme Derock again startled the audience with her exhibition of the endurance of a woman's "jaw," this performance alone must
