OREGON AND WASHINGTON.

T. C. Mortimer, of Coos county, has been adjudged insane and was taken to the asylum last week.

John Renholm got his leg broken at Empire City on the 5th inst., by plank breaking in the sidewalk.

Annie, a little 7 year old child of O. Mattoon, of Drains, caught her dress on fire, and so seriously was she burned that she died of the injuries.

Three hunters in the Cascade mountains became surrounded by fire and had to run for life. One of the number had his whiskers scorched.

A party consisting of J. W. Howard, Drs. Whiteaker and Atkins, left Prineville a few weeks ago to explore that portion of the country at the head of the Deschutes a little south west of the Three Sisters, and found a country abounding in beautiful lakes, on the summit of the Cazcade mountains. They expect to return next year.

An old settler informs us that T. B. Merry is unfortunate in his reminiscences in the Sunday Oregonian, where he refers to the late A. J. Moody as the first Sheriff of this county. That is an error and ignores Chick, Haskell, Davis, McNamara, Dryden and Hacker, all of whom held the office prior to Moody. Such leaps in chronology are unpardonable and need settling aright. -Coast Mail.

Mr. E. T. Miller placed on our table a specimen of one of the greatest natural curiosities it has been our privilege to witness for some time. It consisted of a fir bough coated to the depth of half an inch in places with a clear white candy. The specimen came from the neighborhood of Bald mountain, northwest of Kings valley, where we are informed nearly all the trees are so coated. It is evidently crystallized honey-dew, and must exist in immense quantities in that section. The settlers gather it and manufacture it inco syrup for table use. Oregon against the world.-Itemizer.

Mr. Wendell Philips expresses himself as follows: "I distrust and despise the Republicans as hypocrites and time-servers, as double dealers, as soulless carrion, masquerading in the grave clothes of their honest predecessors. They have no right to seek their can didate among the high-minded and preferable. Let them choose a fitting And Second to on el leader from among the Tewksbury marshes, the peddlers of poor men's
