

Correct.

The slanderer, the American Register truthfully remarks, is one of the most detestable pests of society. More evil is done, more useful purposes defeated, more honorable and truly meritorious men are injured and thwarted in their most useful undertakings by slander, detraction and mischief making than by any other cause.

General Sherman's Farewell.

WASHINGTON, October 31.—Correspondence incident to the retirement of General Sherman is published today. The general shows that while his legal term of service does not expire until February 8, 1884; that the season of the year is not suited, to the changes necessary in his retirement.

Kentucky boasts of a rival in crime of the boy murderer, Jesse Pomeroy. His name is Slagle and he is scarcely over 15 years of age. He recently murdered a German, who had a wife and seven children, for the paltry sum of $20.

Dr Chance, representative from the Oregon Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows to the Sovereign Grand Lodge while East, says the Oregon Sentinel, relates that while riding in the grand parade, with the name of the State on his carriage, he heard people all along the line as he passed say "Oregon" and saw them staring at him.

There will be elections in ten States on the 6th of November: Connecticut, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

The Democrats reduced the Republican majority in Iowa from 60,000 to 5,000. At a similar rate of change next year it ought to go Democratic by 50,000 majority.

It was Senator Sherman who said that "the party which carries Ohio will elect the President."

Montana is four times as big as Ohio and is yet considered too small to come into the Union.

Somewhat wisely says that the grand secret of advertising is in repetition. Iteration and reiteration compel attention. An occasional advertisement is barely sufficient to keep the advertiser from falling into the great receptacle of utterly forgotten things.
