"I'm in for thirty days, I reckon," said the prisoner, sullenly.

"No, not that; what offense did you "Didn't commit anything. The judge committed me." "Well, you must have been accused of some crime."

"Oh, yes, I was accused of trying to get on the police."

"Nonsense! Trying to get on the police is no crime. I have myself re commended several men for positions In the police force."

"It is a fact. That is all I was sent here for. You see there was two of te, and we both tried to get on the same policeman. We had him down, but some of the other peelers thought we were crowding the man too hard,

"That will do, sir," said the philanthropist. "I understand your case perfectly. Here are a few phamphlets and a copy of the Scottish Blue Bells for the improvement of your mind, which appears to be a little warped."-

General Roserrans having received a letter from a negro on the recent Supreme Court decision of civil rights, replies thus: "Your people's route to independence and respect is in strict attention to the education of your children. At first elementary, sufficient for them to be able to read and write, and next, industrial and moral education, so that they can be independent, and develop a good that will be better law and a better guarantee of the equality of rights than any that be gotten by contention. The moment the olored people learn to read and think bonscientiously, and learn trades and business, allowing the brighter ones to take higher education as they are found capable, race frictions will disappear, and they will command the respect of their white brethren of the producing

It is said that Judah P. Benjamin le to return after twenty years of residence abroad. He will probably be as much amazed at the growth of the country as any of our foreign visitors. Since the rebellion Benjamin has devoted himself to the practice of law and with such results that he retired the peer of any living English lawyer.

and all scrofulous diseases, Sores, Erysipslas, Eczema, Blotches, Ringworm, 2umors, Carbuncles, Boils, and Eroptions of the Skin, are the direct result of an impure state of the blood.

To cure these diseases the blood must be purified, and restored to a healthy and natural condition. Aven's SARSAPARILLA has for over forty years been recognized by eminext medical authorities as the most powerful blood purifier in existence. It frees the system from all foul humors, enricies and strengthens the blood, removes all traces of moreurial treatment, and proves itard a complete master of all scrofulous discases.
