

The Roseburg Plaindealer says: Thursday of last week Joseph Hopkins was found in a helpless condition at his coal mine near Looking Glass. Peter Birch was going out to the mine and found Mr. Hopkins in a ditch, having been stricken with paralysis. He immediately took him to his cabin, which was near at hand, put dry clothes on him and remained there during the night. On Friday Mr. Hopkins seemed much better, and they started to Looking Glass, but the shock was much more severe than at first supposed and he died the day following. Mr. Hopkins came to Oregon eight years ago and had discovered the coal mine near Looking Glass. He was highly respected by all who knew him, and his sudden death cast a gloom over that entire community.

The great bridge which connects the cities of New York and Brooklyn is not a paying institution. The interest on the bonds amounts to $750,000 per year, and the receipts, over expenses for the opening day, May 24th to October 1st, were but $15,349 60.

Georgia gives a Democratic majority of over 50,000, elected its present governor on a prohibition platform, and has seventy-one counties in which the sale of liquor is forbidden. What Republican state can show a better temperance record?

One hundred and thirty thousand good Americans went abroad during the season which has just ended. The march of dollars is evidently eastward.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured. It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and acts nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the Vigor is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

Mr. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Equine, says: "AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The VIGOR is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

ME. ANDER FAIRBANKS, leader of the celebrated "Fairbank Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1880: "Ever since my hair began to give every evidence of the change which befell me in time, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness — a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

Mrs. O. A. PIERCE, writing from 18 Elm St., Charleston, Mass., April 11, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly use but one bottle of the Vigor, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.

There are many who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.
