absent. Chris Crone and Joe Cantrell acted as referees, and they have the thanks of the club for their correctness of decision and attention to their business. S W Harpole, B B rather heavy set, the other quite tall with two small white spots on rump.

Jeanes and G W Gibson acted as scorers; Ed gray horse two years old, with dark spot Sherman and J W Richardson acted as trap pullers. The contest was one of the liveliest ever had by this club. Another contest will be had on the 29th, when a man can have a chance to squander some of his loose half dollars, as J A Gibson | roposes to wager $20 that no man breaks ten straight balls. Also three coin prizes are at stake.

EUGENE, Duc. 25, 1883. The anniversary exercises biven by the W CT U, last Sabbath evening, were ably conducted by Mrs Prof Condon. The spirit and determination which was shown by the President and every member who took part, imparted a charm to the meeting which was to the winds thy fears," seemed to give the to the winds thy fears," seemed to give the All kinds of AMMUNITION, SHELLS, WADS, CAPS, PRIMERS, CATRIDGES, BELTS, FLASKS, ETC. was quite impressive.

Mrs Prof Collier in her "Glance at the W CTU," gave many very interesting facts mill. peerning the same, and awakened a new interest in the work.

Rev E P Henderson, Judge Walton and Crain, showed thought and deep feeling on the temperance subject in their five minute In the Circuit Court of the State of O.c. speeches. While listening to Miss Andrews' sole, the thought came: "What can be more Oregon Railway Company, smooth, elegant manner he gained the ear; by the depth of feeling expressed he gained the heart; by the plain spoken, "home temperance" talk, the earnest appeal and fearlessuess in supporting this cause, be thor. drews read distinctly and touchingly the the first day of the next term of said Court, poem, "Only Sixteen."
