

Getting a Criminal Practise.

A murderer in New York can, if he chooses, take his pick from a considerable number of fairly competent lawyers, even though he hasn't a dollar with which to pay: "I was five years getting into a profitable criminal practice," one of the men in this line is quoted as saying, "and I succeeded only by serving gratis. I haunted police courts, and to every prisoner committed for trial I tendered myself. In the trial courts the judge may assign any lawyer present to defend the prisoner not provided with counsel. I made it a point to be on hand for these assignments. Of course many of the cases were so small that they did not get into the papers at all, and in those that were reported, my name would not appear, but usually each hard day's work brought the desired reward in the shape of publicity. My practice grew into immense proportions, but it was a year before I could get enough money out of it in a week to pay my modest board bill on Saturday night. At the end of the second year I had worked up to a barely living income, but I had a debt left to clear off, and it is only very lately that I have become established firmly enough to refuse all but cash cases. Indeed, I do not let a good murder fall into rival hands on account of the perpetrator's impoverty. Let me advise you to commit a sensational crime, if any, because then you can obtain lawyers free—more eminent ones, too, than you may imagine.

Captain Eads, replying to the overtures of the Galveston City Council, undertakes to give thirty feet of water at Galveston bar, twenty feet guaranteed inside of two years, for a total consideration of $7,500,000, the payment to be made as water is obtained upon the same plan as was pursued in deepening the south pass at the mouth of the Mississippi. For a further expense of $100,000 yearly depth of thirty feet will be maintained for twenty years; the present depth of water on the bar being fifteen feet.

"By John Rogers!" when spoken in the right tone of voice, is considered an oath in Vermont.

SCROFULA and all scrofulous diseases, Sores, Erysipelas, Eczema, Itchings, Ringworm, Tumors, Carbuncles, Boils, and Eruptions of the Skin, are the direct result of an impure state of the blood. To cure these diseases the blood must be purified, and restored to a healthy and natural condition. AYER'S SASSAPARILLA has for over forty years been recognized by eminent medical authorities as the most powerful blood purifier in existence. It frees the system from all foul humors, enriches and strengthens the blood, removes all traces of mercurial treatment, and proves itself a complete master of all scrofulous diseases.

A Recent Cure of Scrofulous Sores. Some months ago I was troubled with scrofulous sores (ulcers) on my legs. The limbs were badly swollen and inflamed, and the sores discharged large quantities of offensive matter. Every remedy I tried failed, until I used AYER'S SASSAPARILLA, of which I have now taken three bottles, with the result that the sores are healed, and my general health greatly improved. I feel very grateful for the good your medicine has done me. Yours respectfully, Mrs. ANN O'BRIEN, 116 Sullivan St., New York, June 24, 1882.

All persons interested are invited to call on Mrs. O'Brien also upon the Rev. Z. P. Wells of 78 East 64th Street, New York City, who will take pleasure in testifying to the wonderful efficacy of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, not only in the cure of this lady, but in his own case and many others within his knowledge.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla stimulates and regulates the action of the digestive and assimilating organs, renews and strengthens the vital forces, and speedily cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Rheumatic Gout, Catarrh, General Debility, and all diseases arising from an impoverished or corrupted condition of the blood, and a weakened vitality. It is incomparably the cheapest blood medicine, on account of its concentrated strength, and great power over disease.
