Annual School Meeting.

Legal notice of said meeting having been given, the legal voters of school district No 4, in Lane County, Oregon, met pursuant to said notice at the Court House in said district on Monday, the 3d day of March, 1884, at 1 p. m., a quorum and full board being present. F B Dunn, Chairman, presided. The minutes of the last annual meeting and the annual report of the Clerk were read and approved. The chairman having announced that the next business in order was the election of one Director, to serve for the term of three years, and one Clerk to serve for the term of one year. Wm Smith was elected Director, and J E Fenton Clerk. On motion of Geo B Dorris, thanks of the citizens of Eugene were tendered to F B Dunn for his earnest and efficient services as Director for the past twenty years. The motion of S P Lowell to put a cistern on or near the school premises, to be used in case of fire, elicited considerable discussion, citizens present being unanimously in favor of a cistern, but a majority deemed it the duty of the city to construct said cistern; the motion was tabled. R B Cochran made some pointed and well timed remarks in regard to the necessity of repainting the school building, and upon calling for an expression of those present it was unanimously conceded to be a matter of prime importance, and on motion the directors were authorized to have said building repainted. Wm Smith and J E Fenton, Director and Clerk elect, were then duly sworn to perform the duties of their respective offices by F B Dunn, Chairman of the Board, and there being no other business before the meeting, on motion of T J Dutton, adjourned. F. B. DUNN, Chairman. Attest: J. E. FENTON, Clerk.

County Fair Meeting.

A meeting of the incorporators of the Lane County Agricultural Society was held at the Court House, in Eugene City, on Saturday March 1st. Present—all the Board present except Simpson. A letter was read from the committee at Cottage Grove, inviting the co-operation of the Board in holding a fair at that place. Wilkins and Belshaw reported the necessary permission from county and city authorities for the erection of stalls for stock near the public square in Eugene City. On motion of Churchill, the time for holding the fair was fixed for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 27th, 28th and 29th. A motion by Churchill to hold a free fair was lost, and on motion of Wilkins it was decided that all entries should be free, and season tickets for males 50 cents. Discussion was had by the Board and other gentlemen present relative to the subscription of stock and the permanent organization of the Society. Adjourned to meet on the 21st Saturday in June. J. S. CHURCHILL, Sec'y.

Born, Feb 26, to the wife of O F Knox, a daughter.

Mr J P Curran was at Eugene the first of the week.

Born, to the wife of W H Martin, March 4th, a daughter.

Mrs Cole, daughter of Mr Ward, is visiting her parents and friends here.

Mr Nat Martin left our fair city this week; he has moved to his ranch again.

Married at Cresswell, March 2, 1884, by Rev C H Wallace, Mr R W Veatch, of Cottage Grove, and Miss Belle Parsons of the former place.

The delightful weather we have been having for the last twelve days has been taken advantage of by the farmers and gardeners, and a great deal of grain and vegetables have been put in the ground.

APPEAL.

DIED EN ROUTE TO THE MINES.—Al McKenzie, a well known railroader, formerly bridge foreman on the Oregon & California road, left here a few days ago to go to the Coeur d'Alene mines. He arrived at Rathdrum last Monday early in the afternoon, and complained of feeling ill. Going to the hotel, he retired about 3 o'clock, and he left orders not to be called for supper, as he needed sleep. On calling him early Tuesday morning to take the stage for Coeur d'Alene City, discovery was made that he was dead. He was 40 years old, and has a wife and two children living at Albina. Mr J D McKinnon of the Clarendon Hotel, an old friend of McKenzie, received the news of the death, and has telegraphed to Rathdrum to send the remains here.—Oregonian.

AN ENIGMA AND "CRANK."—The editor of the Walla Walla Statesman says "that it must be a mortifying thing to the Lord to know that he created the East Oregonian imbecile in his own image." About correct. He is one of the most egotistic "cranks" known to Oregon journalism. His local columns are wholly replete, and he is now engaged in his editorial columns in trying to divide the Democracy of Umatilla county.

THE FRUIT CROP.—We have interviewed a number of the fruit growers of this vicinity, and the opinion of a large majority of them is that the fruit was not hurt by the recent freeze. It would be unfortunate if the fruit crop of this year would prove a failure as last year's did, but it is very improbable that such will be the case.

LARGE TURNIP.—A turnip, raised by Mr T J Dutton, on his Camp Creek farm, weighing over 35 lbs, can be seen at the real estate office of Washburne & Dutton. What country is this world can beat it!

CLOSED.—The public school has been closed the greater portion of this week, the teachers being in attendance upon the Teacher Institute at Roseburg.

Latham Items.

LATHAM, March 6, 1884.

Mr J Langdon paid Eugene a short visit last week.

Old Mr Taylor went to Eugene Monday returning Wednesday.

Mr Comstock has closed his logging camp for the present.

Mrs D R Harris went yesterday to visit her daughter, Mrs Wills, near Harrisburg.

Messrs Elmer and Ed Emerson came home Friday evening. Elmer returned Monday to Eugene.

A special train with some R R dignitaries passed south Monday afternoon, returning last night.

Mr Comstock has been away since Friday, looking after the interests of his ranch on Pass creek.

Mr J B Rouse attends Commissioners' Court this week in the interests of a change of road and a bridge.

Misses Tillia Powell, Alice Shortridge, Ida Taylor, Elzina Taylor and Mr Alfred Powell, have returned home from school at Eugene.

Our first three March mornings were frosty, followed by nice days, the fourth light frost and some clouds, and yesterday it rained.

At the school meeting in district 75, Wm Small was elected Director to succeed Mr Turpen, and Phineas Massey re-elected Clerk. The other Directors are D R Harris and W W Shortridge. No teacher selected.

In district 25 W J White was re-elected Director, and J H Sharp re-elected Clerk. The other Directors are Alex Cooley and J M Martin. Miss Estella Whiteaker has been selected as teacher for the next term of school. The Directors have signed a notice to post, "That parties have been unlawfully entering the school house in district 25, and that hereafter all such parties thus trespassing will be apprehended and prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law."

O.

ARRESTED.—Chris Kagle, who is known by the name of "Old Chris," was arrested last Wednesday evening, by Deputy U S Marshal Watson, on the charge of furnishing some Indians with whisky. The evidence as stated by the witnesses summoned in the case, is that Chris was noticed to pass a wood pile on his way home, and that soon afterwards the Indians were seen to get a bottle of whisky, or something else, from the stack of wood. We suppose if any of our citizens had been in that vicinity, instead of Chris, who is a harmless old man, he would have been arrested and thrown in jail, as the defendant was. Taken to Portland to answer in the U S Courts. One of the worst features of the case is that after being taken to Portland, tried, and probably found innocent, he will be discharged, and being without money, old and helpless, he would suffer for the want of food, but thank to modern civilization, friends have furnished him with money which will enable him to return home. A man that would maliciously and knowingly make a complaint against such a person is only fit to seek out an existence with the lowest of criminals. It would be far cheaper for our citizens to take up a subscription for such a person and send him to the Sandwich Islands, or some other island of the seas. We are also reliably informed that the Deputy Marshal refused to accept bail, which was offered by a reliable citizen, which is certainly censurable.

HELD TO ANSWER.—A young man by the name of Root, who has been working in the Springfield saw mill, last Sunday got on a spree and "took the town." He procured a Winchester rifle and defied the officers of the law. At about midnight word was sent to Sheriff Campbell of this city, about his doings, when the Sheriff went to Springfield and arrested Root, finding him in bed with his Winchester alongside him. Monday he was tried before Justice Hamilton, of Springfield precinct, for the crime of assault with intent to kill, on the person of Mr J L Beebe, Constable. After hearing the evidence the Justice held the prisoner to await the action of the Grand Jury in the sum of $600. After laboring faithfully to find some one who would deposit that amount to secure his liberation, he succumbed to the inevitable, and is now bawling in jail at the expense of the county. If he should get a term in the penitentiary, he will not think it so funny to "run" a town even as small as Springfield.

RETAINS HIS POSITION.—We are pleased to announce to the many friends of Mr H H Giltry, that he still retains his position in the U S Senate. We clip the following complimentary remarks concerning him from a Washington correspondence in the Portland Standard: "With all the removals in the Senate employes, no one has ever suggested the removal of Hon H H Giltry, the very efficient Legislative and Reading Clerk of the Senate. By his uniform kindness and courtesy, he has gained the esteem, respect and confidence, not only of the Democratic Senators, but of the leading and most influential Senators on the other side of the chamber. He has kept himself well posted on the rules and parliamentary practices, so that his services, sometimes to the presiding officer, have been invaluable. There is no chance of Mr Giltry being removed for many years yet, as it looks now, as he has earned, as he deserves, the confidence of all the Senators of both political parties."

LIVELY TOWN.—Drummers inform us that Eugene is the liveliest interior town in the State of Oregon, and its merchants are the surest business men they sell to in the Northwest. There has not been a failure in Eugene for several years, which certainly speaks well for our little city. Its greatest need at the present time is the establishment of manufacturing in our midst which would attract people to our town. Another want is the building of dwellings, which would pay handsomely on the amount invested. There has not been an empty dwelling—fit to live in—in our town for the past eighteen months.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—At the annual school meeting last Monday, Mr Wm Smith was elected director for the term of three years, and J E Fenton clerk, for the term of one year. For full proceedings of the meeting see another column.

We hope the prayer of the petitioners will be granted, as in Summer time the increase is greatly needed.

REMOVED.—Mr R F Baker has moved his tailor shop over the Grange store, and is prepared to do all kinds of work in his line at reasonable prices. He has the finest lot of samples ever brought to this city. Don't give your orders to San Francisco humping tailors, when you can get first-class work done at home at less prices.

DECLARED UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Judge Deady Declares the Mortgage Tax Law Unconstitutional.

In a decision made by Judge Deady in the U S Courts at Portland, Thursday, the Oregon Mortgage Tax LAW was declared unconstitutional. The Oregon State Supreme Court some time since passed on the law and unanimously sustained the provisions of the act. Notwithstanding the decision of the State Courts, Deady, as was expected, favored the capitalists of the East, and interposed his objection to their paying their lawful taxes on money protected by the State. It is the general opinion of the people of this vicinity that the case should be appealed to the U S Supreme Court, where they have no doubt the law will be pronounced legal. We know it is just. It is expected that much litigation will follow the recent decision.

Republican County Ticket.

COTTAGE GROVE, March 3, 1884.

EDITOR GUARDIAN.—I hear many of the people proposing names of candidates suitable for being nominated at the respective county conventions, therefore, I, as a faithful friend of Mitchell the slaughtered, have made up a ticket that has a wide-spread notoriety throughout the many precincts of Lane. The Legislative ticket is certain, if elected, to vote for the immortal John of the last conflict. Some of the minor candidates are not in perfect harmony with the "Chamber," but we are "forced" to give them a portion of the offices for the sake of peace and harmony in the ranks, and it will give us a chance to everlastingly "snow them under" so that we will not be bothered with them any longer. Here's the ticket:

Senator—Rodney the silent.

Representatives—Jim the Gimleter, John of Springfield, Geo the Bland, and Joseph of Junction.

County Judge—John of Eugene.

Sheriff—Walter the Easy.

Clerk—Joel the Pure.

Treasurer—Joseph the Meek.

School Superintendent—Clay the Genial.

Commissioners—Jesse the Handsome and Abram the Cunning.

FERN.

Convicted.

The case of Wm Bloxam, for the murder of Jacob Fisher, was given to the jury Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on the sixth day of the trial. The jury after being out two and a half hours, brought in a verdict of murder in the second degree, and the prisoner was remanded till Saturday for sentence. While the aspect of the case, as brought out by the evidence, was very black, and showed that Bloxam had been guilty of a great crime, still it was not expected that he would be convicted of murder in the first degree, as the counsel for the defense succeeded in making it appear that the old man Fisher was an aggressive and probably a dangerous man, especially when in liquor or in anger. Yet the facts brought out were conclusive that Bloxam was in a great measure accountable for the death of Fisher. That the verdict is a just one cannot be doubted. A life time in the penitentiary is a little less punishment than hanging, but it is commensurate with Bloxam's crime. The usual motion in arrest of judgment will probably be made.—Standard.

DIRECT FROM THE EAST.—Mr G Bettman will receive direct from Chicago via the N P R R, the first of the week, a large stock of goods for the Spring and Summer trade, which he will sell at astonishingly low prices.
