AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession.

These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.

A Sufferer from Headache writes: "AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers."

W. L. PAGE, of W. L. Page & Bro., Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882. "I have used AYER'S PILLS in numberless instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our house, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FOR DYSPEPSIA they are invaluable."

J. T. HAYES, Mexia, Texas, June 17, 1882.

The REV. FRANCIS B. HARLOWE, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the excessive habit, and have vastly improved my general health."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.

HON. JOSEPH C. S. BLACKBURN.

THE COMING SENATOR FROM KENTUCKY AND SUCCESSOR TO CERRO GORDO WILLIAMS.

Hon. Joseph C. S. Blackburn, who will succeed Senator Williams of Kentucky, March 4, 1885, is in the 46th year of his age, having been born in Woodford county, Ky., October 1, 1838. Mr. Blackburn commenced the practice of law at Lexington, Ky., in 1858, but in a few months moved to Chicago. In 1860 he returned to Kentucky, and at the breaking out of the war entered the Confederate army as a private. He afterwards joined the staff of Gen. William Preston, as aide-de-camp, and distinguished himself for daring and bravery in several engagements.

At the close of the war Mr. Blackburn settled in Arkansas, but, in 1868, returned to his native State and county, where he engaged in farming, and also the practice of law. He was elected to the State Legislature in 1871 and 1873; was then elected to the 45th, 46th and 47th Congresses and was re-elected to the 48th Congress as a Democrat, received 16,799 votes against 5,692 votes for Hord, Republican.

Mr. Blackburn has been a conspicuous figure on the floor of the House, being recognized as one of the strongest and readiest debaters in that body. He had announced himself as a candidate for the Speakership of the present House, but withdrew in favor of his colleague, Mr. Carlisle, and threw his influence in that gentleman's favor. Mr. Blackburn now represents the Kentucky district represented in bygone days by Henry Clay, John J. Crittenden and John C. Breckenridge. He entered the late Senatorial contest with but twelve votes pledged to him, whilst Senator Williams had fifty. Blackburn increased to forty-five, never lost a vote and finally succeeded in carrying off the prize. He will continue to serve as a Representative until March, 1885.

Oregon Pacific News.

Last Saturday the tug "Favorite," Captain J. J. Winnant, — hours from San Francisco, arrived at Yaquina Bay. At one o'clock she crossed the bar finding a well defined straight channel, and eighteen feet of water. This was two hours before high water, Captain Winnant took the vessel out two hours later, and sounding carefully a number of times at different points on the bar, found fully nineteen feet of water at the shallowest place, at the time the tide on South Beach registered seven feet and four inches, showing conclusively that there was over twenty feet of water in the channel at the highest tide of that day. This will probably surprise even some of the most sanguine believers in the future of Yaquina Bay.

Work at the front is progressing rapidly. New gangs of Chinese are arriving every day and are immediately distributed along the line. It is reported on the best authority that several vessels are now on the point of leaving Frisco with rails and other supplies for the Company. Wm. M. Hoag, General Manager, who has been in San Francisco for some time arrived here last Tuesday.

The steamer "Kate and Anna" and A. B. Fields, from Portland arrived at Yaquina Thursday, crossing the Bar at 10 A. M. Both vessels left Astoria on Wednesday, kept in company all the way, crossing the Bar at the same time.

Corvallis Leader, March 7th. Where it got on and where it was beating its way to no one knew.

OREGON AND WASHINGTON.

There are 240 children of school age at Baker City.

F. Grant was arrested in Walla Walla the other day, on the opium smoking charge. The "old man should be informed.

Port Moody, B. C., has again been officially declared the western terminus of the Canadian Pacific Railroad. This is official and not a canard telegram to boom town lot sales.

"Little Julius," or Julius Leifman, a commercial traveler, well known in the Pacific Northwest, attempted suicide at Seattle Thursday. He was accused and arrested for embezzlement of $400.

A chicken sitting on the springs under one of the coaches of the western bound train last Sunday, attracted the attention of the Spokane Falls people.

Says the Lafayette Register: The election of a woman as a School Director in this district was quite a surprise to some, but gives good satisfaction for the reason that Mrs. Kely will make a good director.

Says the Walla Walla Union of the 7th: Sheriff Thompson went to Wal-lula last evening to "evict" H. C. Willis from the railroad house at that place] The O. R. & N. Co., are decided in this matter, as they propose to have first-class eating houses along their route.

He Reversed.

From the S. F. Post.

As an adjunct of a hotel in this city is a poker game, the limit of which for unlimited heavy betting probably cannot be found in the country. The other day one of the heaviest players at this room, an ex-Senator, pointed out a dapper looking young man on the street and said to a friend, with a sad sigh:

"There goes the biggest robber on record."

"Who is he?"

"He's a commercial drummer from New York. He was introduced to us fellows about a month ago, and played poker three weeks running."

"He won, eh?"

"No, he lost. You see the great art in poker is to learn to size up your opponent's play and to learn to read his facial expression. This fellow didn't seem to play very well, and finally we got on to the face that every time he was "bluffing" he'd smile and look confident, while whenever he held three's or better he'd sigh and look frightened, just to coax us to bet, you see."

"Old dodge, that."

"Exactly, but listen. After we had dropped to his ways, we went for him heavy, and won $200 or $300 every night for a week or more. The other night we waited until he seemed unusually exultant, and we went for him all round. Every time we raised him he'd dig up more coin some how, and finally he put a check for $8,000 on top of the pile. We noticed that he tried desperately to force a smile and look happy, so we all called him. There was $36,000 and odd on the table. I had three aces myself."

"And then?"

"An then the infernal pirate showed down four kings. He had just reversed on us, that was all."

A party writing from the Cour d'Alene under date of February 12th, to a relative in this city, says: I am in the Cour d'Alene, after a long and hard struggle. This is the coming mining camp. There is hardly standing room here now. Wood is $12 per cord, although it is plentiful within one hundred yards of town. Snow is about five feet deep, and the thermometer 22 degrees below zero. Plenty of cold and suffering here and on the road getting here. We had to cross plenty of snow say from twelve to fifteen feet deep, and had blizzards all the way for forty miles. We had to cross the highest mountains and deepest declivities any man ever saw. Some are bald and others covered with timber. I pulled a toboggan nearly all the way, and sometimes had to carry it where the mountains were sideling. I came near freezing my hands, trying to help others.—Standard.
