HALL'S Vegetable Sicilian HAIR RENEWER

was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first successful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements so careful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp. HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe. Its unparalleled success can be attributed to but one cause: the entire fulfillment of its promises.
The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction.
The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.

HON. MORRISON R. WAITE,
CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE UNITED STATES.

Morrison R. Waite presents a subject for a more extended biography than our space will permit. Fulsome eulogy would be unworth the character and office of the Chief Justice. On the other hand the record of such a life belongs to the public he has served and is still serving with so much ability.
In the quiet old rural town of Lyme, Connecticut, still stands the house where Morrison Renwick Waite was born, November 29, 1816. Mr. Waite entered Yale College at the age of seventeen and graduated with honor in 1837, in a class which included Wm. M. Everts, Edward Pierpont, Prof. Silliman and others who have become distinguished men. He then began the study of law in his father's office in Lyme, but finished his studies in the office of Samuel M. Young, then a prominent attorney in Maumee City, Ohio. In 1839 his preceptor took him into partnership, and in 1850 the firm of Young & Waite removed to Toledo, Ohio, and established a large and successful practice. A few years after, Mr. Waite's younger brother was admitted to the bar and a partnership was formed consisting of the two brothers, which continued up to the time of the former's appointment to his present high position by President Grant, January 20, 1874.

Politically Mr. Waite is a Republican, but he has always been too deeply engaged in his profession to become much of a partisan or party leader. To all the war measures of the government he gave earnest and effective support. In 1849 Mr. Waite was elected to the Ohio Legislature as a Whig. In 1852 he was reluctantly a candidate for Congress but was defeated by Edwin M. Phelps. Thereafter other nominations and appointments were tendered him but he refused to accept any of them.

Mr. Waite was a conspicuous character in the great Geneva Tribunal as one of the United States counsel, and he performed his arduous task to his great credit and to the entire satisfaction of his government. He thereafter returned to Toledo and resumed his practice, and in 1873 was chosen President of the Ohio State Constitutional Convention. Upon the death of Chief Justice Chase there was intense interest throughout the United States to know who would be his successor. After the successive nomination of Hon. Geo. H. Williams and Hon. Caleb Cushing and the withdrawal of their names, President Grant then selected Mr. Waite and his appointment was confirmed by a unanimous vote in the Senate. It is the glory and security of a nation to have its highest place of Justice filled by men, who, like Chief Justice Waite, add to the loftiest official character that purity of life, urbanity of manners, and generous beneficence, which distinguished him.

The superintendent of the Brooklyn bridge being interviewed as to the effect of recent disastrous gales on the bridge, declared that any injury was impossible, adding: "I am of the opinion that wind 100 miles an hour, though it might create a momentary swaying motion, would have no other effect. The bridge beyond a doubt is a pearl among suspension bridges, and the public have hardly yet learned to appreciate it as it deserves."
There are fifty-seven business houses in operation at Belknap, on the Northern Pacific railroad, forty-two being saloons.

RINGING RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Democratic State Convention.

The following platform was adopted by the Oregon Democracy, at The Dalles, April 17th, unanimously. It has the right ring to it:

The Democracy of the State of Oregon, in council assembly, declare:

First—That we favor the forfeiture of all unearned railroad and wagon road grants and the opening of the land to settlement and occupancy by those entitled to the benefits of the various land laws of the United States.

Second—That we are in favor of the passage by Congress of laws made in the interest of the people, regulating inter-State commerce, and also State laws, controlling and regulating fares and freights upon all transportation lines, and preventing discrimination in favor of or against persons and places.

Third—That we look with alarm upon the unauthorized assumption of power and jurisdiction of United States Courts in interfering with officers collecting the revenues of the State of Oregon.

Fourth—That we are in favor of the Mortgage Tax Law, and believe the principle of taxation enunciated therein correct, and ought to be sustained.

Fifth—That we favor the passage of such laws in relation to the assessment and collection of taxes as will make the assessment and taxation of property equal and uniform throughout the State, and demand the strict enforcement of such laws when enacted.

Sixth—That the power conferred by the federal constitution upon Congress to enact tariff laws was given for the sole and exclusive purpose of deriving revenues for the support of such government, and that the enacting of any tariff law for any other purpose, such as taxation of one class of people, is an unwarranted by the constitution as it is repugnant to justice and inimical to the general welfare, and we therefore favor a tariff for revenue, limited to necessities of government economically administered, and a gradual but persistent reduction of the existing protective duties.

Seventh—That the improvement of our coast harbors, the Columbia river and its tributaries, is of vital importance to the commerce of the whole State of Oregon, and we earnestly ask that an adequate appropriation be made by our present Congress to begin the work of the Columbia river bar improvement, already too long neglected. We also ask such appropriation for the Cascade locks as will insure their speedy completion; also, we ask of our Representatives in Congress a united effort to secure a liberal appropriation for the improvement and continuation of the work of improving the harbors of Yaquina bay, Coos bay and the Coquille river.

Eighth—That we favor the abolition of the prison contract system, and the present coolie trade conducted on this coast, as degrading to the wage workers of the country.

Ninth—That for the purpose of preventing growing fraud in our elections, and to preserve the purity of the ballot box, we favor the passage of a registry law.

Tenth—That we are in favor of more efficient mechanics lien laws.

OREGON AND WASHINGTON.

A great many men are out of employment at Tacoma.

Prescott, W. T., people want a preacher—a Methodist.

The Tacoma Furniture Company works forty-five men.

The late reports from Coeur d'Alene are far from reassuring. It is said that hundreds of men are living on charity.

A thorough canvass of the women of Goldendale, W. T., as to how they stood on the question of voting, resulted in showing that sixty-nine are opposed to woman suffrage and nine in favor of it.

Says the Walla Walla Journal: Emily Sanderson has returned from Coeur d'Alene. He reports that the prospects now are that only three or four claims will pay for working—that the bottom has entirely fallen out of Beaver creek, and the miners are abandoning their claims.

During a dense fog a Mississippi steamboat took landing. A traveler anxious to go ahead came to the unperturbed manager of the wheel, and asked why they stopped. "To such fog. Can't see the river." "But you can see the stars overhead." "Yes," replied the urbane pilot; "but until the bilge-busts we ain't going that way." The passenger went to bed.
