

Was Billy Patterson a Myth.

No, Billy was a participant in the celebrated Broad street riot, which occurred in Boston in June, 1837, and his assailant was Larkin Snow, a member of Melville Engine Co. No. 13, located in Laverett street, where also Larkin resided. Hard blows were given and taken in that memorable battle, where Billy was decidedly worsted, and his friends stepped forth with dire threats demanding to know, "who struck Billy Patterson?" Snow, who was a fine specimen of a man, stepped forward and pleaded guilty to the soft impeachment; whereupon Billy's avenger surveyed the goodly proportions of his face, and said: "B-dad, you're a fine looking 'un, and you gave Billy the purtiest pair of black eyes I've seen this many a day."--Ex.

Rev. Father Wilds' EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows: "On E. 8th St., New York, May 16, 1882. MRS. J. G. AYER & Co., Gentlemen. Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SASSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SASSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good. Z. P. WILDS."

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SASSAPARILLA to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

cleanses, enriches, and strengthens the blood, stimulates the action of the stomach and bowels, and thereby enables the system to resist and overcome the attacks of all Scrophulous Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, Rheumatism, Catarrh, General Debility, and all disorders resulting from poor or corrupted blood and a low state of the system.
