for dancing parties, lectures or any social gathering, this side of Portland. It is finished in the best of style. The floor has been specially put down for dancing purposes. The building will not be used for theatrical purposes, as no stage will be built. The building will be opened shortly by an invitation ball, under the management of one of Eugene's most popular young men. Mr Rhinehart has also rebuilt his shop, which greatly improves the looks of that vicinity.

STRAYED .- From the farm of Geo W Crabtree, Pleasant Hill, one bay horse, with white slit in forehead and diamond brand on left shoulder; aged about 9 years, and 151 hands high. Any person returning the horse to Mr Crabtree will be paid $5.
