Song......'Di Maryherita;' Miss Many Test. Picnic.

Social life on Coyote Creek has just had a 'boom," which culminated in the picnic at Pale-time Church on the 7th inst. Between two and three hundred people gathered here from miles around to participate in the sociability and festivities of the occasion. Among the most prominent features of the programme were recitations by Miss Allie Thompson, Miss Maggie Whitney and Josie Holland, (all of whom acquitted themselves with credit,) music -both vocal and instrumental, the latter being discoursed by the Siuslaw Brass Band, $1400. an archery contest between a number of school girls, and an exciting game of base ball. The dinner, which was free to all and abundant beyond measure, was also a "prominent feature" of the day; this was prominent in a geographical sense, as there were mountains of pies, plains of jelly cakes and desserts in limitless magnitude-it was "immense." The picnie was gotten up under the auspices of the neighboring schools and engineered by the teachers, viz: Miss Millie Thompson, Miss Annie Midgley and Miss Maggie Whitney. Mr Jacob Modie presided over the ceremonies of the day with becoming dignity. No pains were spared to make every one feel happy. Those ladies and gentlemen who contributed ing receipt for writing without blotting.
