Rev. Father Wilds' EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows:

78 E. 5th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

Messrs. J. C. Ayer & Co., Gentlemen:

Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorder. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were alayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SARSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good.

Yours respectfully,
Z. P. WILDS.

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SARSA-PARILLA to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

cleanses, enriches, and strengthens the blood, stimulates the action of the stomach and bowels, and thereby enables the system to resist and overcome the attacks of all Scrupulous Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, Rheumatism, Catarrh, General Debility, and all disorders resulting from poor or corrupted blood and a low state of the system.

EVERY BLAINE AND LOGAN PLACED.

No Relatives or Dependents Remaining who Are not Fed at the Public Crib.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The other day the Sun published a list of the relatives of James G. Blaine, who through his merr and grace are feeding at the public crib; but it was incomplete, and did injustice to the great historian. Some one has said: "He who careth not for his own household is worse than an infidel," and neither of the Republican nominees has failed in this regard. If there is a relative of John Anderson Logan who does not hold an office it is an oversight for which a pardon should forthwith be issued, as it has been Logan's purpose to take care of not only of his relatives, but his servants and private secretaries at Government expense. James Gillespie Blaine has a private secretary who is paid out of the funds appropriated for the support of the State Department, and his name is Sherman. He is now in Augusta assisting Mr. Blaine in answering the 3,000 letters he receives each day, but there is no record to show that Secretary Frelinghuysen has accepted his resignation or stopped his pay.

The members of the Blaine family now holding office are as follows:

John E. Blaine, a brother, Paymaster, U. S. Army.

Robert G. Blaine, a brother, curator of the museum at the Agricultural Department, in charge of the big pumpkins and double-rowed ears of corn.

Robert was a clerk in the House of Representatives when James was Speaker, and a clerk in the Senate while James was a member of that body.

When James became Secretary of State he billeted Robert with Dr. Loring, Commissioner of Agriculture.

Walker Blaine, a son and a young lawyer who never had a case in court, is assistant counsel for the Government in the Court of Alabama Claims at a salary of $3,500 per annum. He was Assistant Secretary of State when his father was Premier, and was selected to conduct some delicate guano negotiations with Peru.

John J. Coppinger, a son-in-law, is Lieutenant-Colonel of the Eighteenth Infantry.

James A. Ekin, a cousin, is Assistant Quartermaster-General in the army.

Wm. M. Ekin, a son of James A., is an agent of the Quartermaster-General, investigating claims growing out of the war in Tennessee. He was a delegato the Chicago Convention

John E. Blaine, a cousin, is Collector of Internal Revenue in Kentucky.

The Rev. Malnor Blaine, a cousin, is a Chaplain in the U. S. Army.

Augustus Stanwood and Isaac Stan-wood, nephews, are clerks in the New York Custom House.

James A. Dodge, a cousin by marriage, is an Inspector of Customs.

The members of the Logan family who hold office are even more numeous: Cornelius A. Logan, a cousin of John Alexander, is Minister to Chili.

W. F. Tucker, Jr., a son-in-law, is a Paymaster in the U. S. Army.

John A. Logan, Jr., a son, is a cadet at West Point.

John M. Cunningham, brother-in-law, Second Lieutenant Nineteenth Infantry.

Samuel S. Errett, brother-in-law, Assistant Superintendent Yellowstone National Park.

Cyrus Thomas, brother-in-law, ethnologist, Smithsonian Institute.

Viola Thomas, niece, clerk, Smithsonian Institute.

Susie Cunningham, sister-in-law, clerk in Treasury Department

Enoch Blanchard, nephew, clerk in the railway postal service.

Mollie E. Jenkins, niece, clerk in the marine hospital service.

James Cunningham, brother-in-law, Postmaster at Birmingham, Ala.

Samuel K. Cunningham, brother-in-law, Inspector Chicago Custom House.

James V. Logan, brother, Postmaster at Murphysboro, Ill.

Edward Hill, nephew, Deputy U. S.
Marshal, Southern District of Ill.

Mary H. Brady, former servant, clerk in Treasury Department, Washington.

Louis Norris, former servant, messenger in Interior Department, Washington.

Daniel Shepherd, private secretary, Assistant Postmaster at Chicago.

Beach Taylor, private secretary, clerk U. S. Senate.

One advantage in favor of Blaine and Logan is that their relatives are now already taken care of, and there are not any to be provided for after election.

An Oppertune Paper on an Important Sub- ject.

EUGENE, June, 1884.

EDITOR GUARD:—I have been asked about the fearful decay of the teeth in this country. In a majority of cases the teeth of our fast living Oregonians begin to decay in childhood. A young lady or gentleman with a sound set of teeth is an exception to the general rule. Do we not have a sad illustration of this subject in the tens of thousands of dentists all over the country. The young man or woman needs a set of artificial teeth before he or she is ready for the marriage relation; and if both parents are toothless in early life what can we expect of the coming generation, for we are taught in the Bible (Genesis, chapter 1, and 11th and 12th verses) about fruit yielding after its own kind, etc. One reason why teeth decay is the absence of lime in our food, is the practice of eating bread which does not contain the constituents of bone that the prevalence of toothache and rickets is to be traced, and to the bad habit of feeding children cake, sugar and candy is often the cause which tends to produce much trouble relative to the teeth, especially the early decay; candy produces a constipated state of the bowels, and there is a point that may be stated here, and that is the action of candy on an exposed nerve. We eat bread, meat, and vegetables and our exposed nerve makes no complaint, but the moment a little candy is dissolved in the tooth the tissue sets up a cry. What does it mean? I have as yet not solved the problem. Who will do it? But we must conclude that candies are injurious, and yet there may be other reasons for the pain produced in the tooth.
But the injurious effects of candies do not stop here. We have a large number of essential oils that are used by the candy makers for flavoring, many of them are very poisonous; the oil of almond (bitter) contains prussic acid, a few drops of this oil will produce death. The peach and almond flavors are made from prussic acid in some form, and are very poisonous. The Indians in Oregon are noted for their good teeth. In coming down the Columbia river we examined many Indian skulls that we found near the road, every one of which contained a complete set of teeth. There are many reasons why the teeth of Indians are in better condition than the white man's.
They eat parched corn; having no grit mill, they grind their food with the teeth, and again Indians sleep with their mouths shut, breathe through their nostrils and does not draw the cold air over their teeth. We breathe through our mouth. Travelers inform us that in the East toothache is unknown, except among white travelers; in India everybody has fine teeth.
The late King of Siam, who died at the age of sixty-five had a full set of teeth without a speck of decay. Cannot something be done to avert this widespread curse of toothache and diseased teeth. Another bad practice is drinking hot coffee, and then rushing out for a glass of soda water or ice cream, the extremes of heat and cold following each other in quick succession. It cracks the enamel of the teeth and causes their early decay. God the creator is all wise and beneficent if we were wise enough to obey the laws of our organism, then these harmful influences would never be felt. May thoughtful men and women consider and act properly.

THOMAS BELSHAW.

Colonel J. A. Price, a prominent Republican and President of the Scrat-ton (Pa.) Board of Trade, says he cannot support Blaine for President of the United States. Mr. Price told a reporter that he regarded Blaine as the representative of the most vicious element in machine politics, and he looked upon the Chicago platform, on which "The Plumed Knight" was nominated, as one of the most insincere and hypocritical documents that ever emanated from a political body making any pretensions to decency.

The Republic, a prominent Irish-American journal of Boston, says of Blaine and Logan: "To day the Republic simply contents itself with de-caring them, (Blaine and Logan), absolutely unfit for any political honors, whatever, and unworthy of the support of any man who has a particle of self-respect or an iota of love for his country."

Up to date sixty-three leading Republican newspapers have gone blank on the tattooed ticket.
