Rev. Father Wilds' EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows:
"At E. 5th St., New York, May 16, 1882.
MESSRS. J. C. AYER & CO., Gentlemen: Last winter I was troubled with a most unpleasant itching humor affecting 2000 especially my hands, which itched so intolerably at night, and I turned so senseless, that I could scarcely bear my clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and enlarged tonsils; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cures, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were alayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until I feel now excellent. I feel a hundred percent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SARSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good.
Yours respectfully,
Z. P. WILDS."

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SARSA-PARILLA to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.
Ayer's Sarsaparilla
cleanses, enriches, and strengthens the blood, stimulates the action of the stomach and bowels, and thereby enables the system to resist and overcome the attacks of all Scrupulous Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, Eneu-matism, Catarrh, General Debility, and all disorders resulting from poor or corrupted blood and a low state of the system.

OUR MINISTER TO GERMANY.
THE HON. JOHN A. KASSON OF IOWA.

Hon John A. Kasson, who was lately appointed as Minister to Germany was born at Burlington, Vt., January 18, 1822. He acquired the rudiments of his education in the public schools of his neighborhood, and when twenty years of age graduated from the University of Vermont. Upon leaving this institution he determined to study law, and pursued a course of reading in Massachusetts; and after being admitted to practice he removed to St. Louis, where he engaged in his profession until 1837, when he settled in Des Moines, Iowa. In the following year he was elected State Director in the organization of the State Bank of Iowa. In the following year he was elected State Commissioner to investigate and report on the condition of the executive Department of Iowa. About this time he was elected Chairman of the Republican State Committee, and in 1860 he was both a Delegate to the Chicago Convention and the representative of Iowa on the Platform Committee. Upon the inauguration of President Lincoln, Mr. Kasson was appointed First Assistant Postmaster-General, a position he occupied until the fall of 1862, when he resigned to accept a nomination for Congress, but in the ensuing election he was defeated.
In 1863 he was appointed United States Commissioner to the International Postal Congress, held in Paris.
On his return he was elected a member of the 38th Congress, and at the close of that was chosen for the 39th. In 1867 he visited Great Britain, France, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Switzerland and Italy, as Commissioner on the part of the United States to negotiate postal connections, and succeeded in inducing all the Governments excepting that of France to sign the preliminary agreements. From 1868 to 1873 he served as member of the General Assembly of Iowa, and was elected to the Forty-third and Forty-fourth Congresses.

Soon after his accession, President Hayes appointed Mr. Kasson United States Minister to Spain, but on account of the stand he had publicly taken in Congress upon the subject of Spanish atrocities in Cuba, he declined the portfolio, and was given that of the Austrian mission. Upon his return from service in Vienna, he returned home and was elected to the Forty-seventh Congress from his old district. He has ranked as one of the Republican leaders of the House.

The Strongest Man.
Cincinnati Enquirer.
The political panic has extended to the Blaine family. Mr. Emmons Blaine, son of Jas. G. Blaine, was interviewed in Syracuse the other evening, and betrayed rather a sad state of affairs in the Maine household. When asked how his father would view the nomination of Mr. Cleveland, he said: "There are other men whom he would rather have in the field against him than Governor Cleveland."
"Your father thinks that Cleveland will make a strong run for President?"
"He would rather have seen any man mentioned in the Chicago Democratic convention nominated than the New York Governor."
"What do you think of Cleveland's prospects through the West?"
"They are as good as any Democrat's prospects could be. There will be a hard fight in Ohio, New York and Connecticut."
It is not understood, however, that Emmons will join the bolters. He will go down with the old man.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat (Rep.): Considering how faithful Colorado has been to the Republican party, the news that the Treasury Department will issue $250,000 more one and two-dollar notes which will keep out of circulation that much silver, reads like the basest ingratitude. Why cannot Indiana be flooded with new silver dollars instead of new bills?

Utica (N. Y.) Observer (Rep.) Messrs Gould, Cyrus Field and Sage are avowedly the supporters of Blaine's candidate and therefore opposed to Cleveland. What kind of campaign madness is it which assumes that the work of unscrupulous monopolists in an endeavor to defeat a pure, fearless and high-minded man like Grover Cleveland?

New York Herald (Ind.): Forty of the Republican and Independent papers that have bolted Blaine have a circulation of 1,723,000. That is a pretty large audience, but, allowing three readers to every copy circulated - certainly a moderate estimate - it will be seen that these papers reach over 5, 000,000 people who have been in the habit of attaching much weight to their opinions.
Two pious and right reverend divines down in Maine, Rev. Dr. Welch and Rev. Dr. Cook, respectively, have written letters "condemning Mr. Blaine as a Christian gentleman whose religious sympathies are entirely Protestant, and who has never, by word or deed, to their knowledge, professed any feeling but that of scorn and contempt for the Pope of Rome." This is the first time in the history of the Government that it has been thought necessary for a Presidential candidate to secure a minister's certificate to the effect that he belongs to one religious sect and scorns another. In this country the people of all shades of sectarian opinion believe in religious tolerances.

The Augusta, Maine, correspondent of the New York Herald writes: "The Irish-American voters hereabouts regarded as blarney the cheap claptrap about Ireland made by Blaine's managers. They know of his indifference when Secretary of State to the cause of the Irish suspects, and that he was largely instrumental in bringing about a temporary repeal of the naturalization laws several years ago. They have not forgotten that when he commenced his newspaper career he wrote some of the most violent Know nothing articles that appeared at a time when hostility to the Irish was the leading feature of his party."

Republican Opinions.

Kansas Patriot (Bolting Rep.): Blaine's white plume looks as if it had been used to clean out a smoky chimney.

*Elmira (N. Y.) News (Ind.) Sheriff Cleveland is about to levy upon the Republican party. He will find, however, that it has already been sold out.

Newark Advertiser (Rep.): No intelligent Republican need flatter himself that Cleveland will not make a strong fight, or that his friends will be easily vanquished in the heated canvass now fairly opened.

Chicago Evening Mail: Thomas Nast was once urged by Tweed's friends to take a trip to Europe "for his health," they paying his expenses.
Blaine and his friends feel like making him the same offer.

New York Commercial Advertiser (Rep.): Mrs. McDonald waved her hand gracefully, and cried: "Hurrah for Cleveland." That is the advantage Cleveland has in being a bachelor. The women will all favor him.

New York Dial (Ind. Rep.): The laborer who was told by his employer not to vote for Hancock, or he would get fifty cents less per day, exposed this whole humbug by answering:
"Boss, if you thought so, ye'd vote for Hancock yerself."

New York Times (Rep.): The ticket which the Democratic Convention has given us is Grover Cleveland and Thomas A. Hendricks. It is a good ticket. It is a winning ticket. Of many possible combinations which the material at command suggested, this is one of the very best.
