AYER'S PILLS.
A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver.
AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession.
These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.
A Sufferer from Headache writes: "AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so whenever occasion offers."
W. L. PAGE, of W. L. Page & Bro., Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882.
"I have used AYER'S PILLS in numberless instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine.
For DYSPEPSIA they are invaluable."
J. T. HAYES,
Mexico, Texas, June 17, 1882.
The REV. FRANCIS B. HARLOWE, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years and I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the entire habit, and have vastly improved my general health." AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appete and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.

Libel Justified in Fact!

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 4.—The answer of the Sentinel Company in the Blaine libel suit was filed in the United States Court this morning. The defense admits printing and publishing the article complained of in the issue of August 8, 1884, and denies that it was false in any particular thereof. It sets forth that James G. Blaine was married to Harriet Stanwood at Pittsburg on or about March 25, 1851; that prior to that time, during the courtship, Blaine seduced Miss Stanwood; that he refused to make reparation for the wrong done, but being afterwards strongly urged thereto, and strongly threatened with chastisement and punishment therein for his said wrong doing, and perchance repenting him of the evil, married her, as stated; that in June following a child was born, known as Stanwood Blaine, which lived two or three years, and was always known by plaintiff and wife as their son. By reason whereof defendants say the matter and things set forth in the article are true, and the same being true they were published of and concerning said plaintiff by defendants as they justly and lawfully might do.

QUESTIONS TO BE ANSWERED.
Defendants file with their answer a number of interrogatories, and require that the same be answered by the plaintiff, under oath, positively and without evasion, within such time as may be limited by the court thereby, among which are the following: State when you finally left Kentucky? If you, at any time, resided there? When you went there? Where you were next employed, and in what business or calling?
If you answer that the maiden name of your wife was Harriet Stanwood, state when she finally left Kentucky, and when and where you next met her?
Give the state and place of your marriage, and the name of the persons, besides yourself and wife, who were present on the occasion?
What acquaintance had you with Jacob Stanwood? What relation was he, if any, to the person you married, and what conversation did you have with him before said marriage, concerning the same, and where did such interview, if any, occur, and what was said and done therein?
Was the first child of said marriage born on the 18th day of June, 1851?
Where did said child die? Where was it buried? If in any cemetery, give the name of the cemetery? Was there any tombstone or monument erected at the grave of said child, giving the date of its birth? and by whose direction was said tombstone erected? did not said tombstone bear the following inscription, relative to the birth of the child?
"Stanwood Blaine; born June 18, 1851."
Has any portion of said inscription on said tombstone been erased since its erection? If so, what portion thereof?
What acquaintance have you with a book called "The Life of James G.
Blaine," written by Russell H. Conwell, with an introduction by Governor Robie of Maine, and published by E.
C. Allen & Co., Augusta, Maine, in the year 1884? Were not the proofs of such work submitted to you, for revision?
Is not the statement made upon the 68th page of said book, as follows: "Miss Stanwood, in March, 1851, became his wife at Pittsburg, Pa." A correct statement of the time and place of your marriage? Did you not communicate to the author of said book, for his use in said work, the name and place of your marriage, as aforesaid?

ANXIOUS FOR TRIAL.
INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 4.—The following statement was to-night furnished the Associated Press correspondent at this point by Mr. Shoemaker:
"To the public: Biased reports have been sent from Indianapolis by certain press correspondents that indicate that defendant in the libel suit brought by Mr. Blaine will seek to delay a prompt trial. On the contrary, we shall seek to expedite the conclusion of the case, and anticipate being ready for an issue before a jury early in October, if not sooner."
JOHN C. SHOEMAKER

Blaine's Suit Against the Argus.
The Portland, Maine, Argus, has this to say about the suit of Blaine against the Indianapolis Sentinel: "Mr.
Blaine has gone into the libel suit business, it seems, to the tune of $50,000.
What the occasion of it is we have not learned, but we suppose a repetition of the old Kentucky incident. If that be so, why did he not attack the Chicago Times, that had two columns, supported by affidavits? This is a very old trick with Mr. Blaine. He tried it on us more than twenty-five years ago, to the tune of $20,000 if we remember correctly. We paid only for the writ in the civil suit. A year and a half after he had us indicted in another county and we promptly demanded trial, but we did not succeed in getting it, and at the next term of court a nol proa. was entered without our knowledge at the opening of the term and official notice given us thereof. The whole thing was mere bluff. Western editors will not be greatly disturbed by attempts in the same line now. If Mr.
Blaine proposes to be a witness, as seems so to be intimated, there will be great interest to hear Mr. Blaine's version of the affair. As a matter of fact, however, he will do nothing of the sort. After the election he will get out of court the easiest way he can."

The Boston Journal, filth-scraper-in-chief to Jas. G. Blaine, has been scraping Buffalo with a fine-tooth comb for scandal oozings affecting Governor Cleveland. Scrape away, Journal, but be careful your representative does not run his scraper over that part of Kentucky in which Bro. Blaine once resided, and over the snug little village in which he taught school.—Boston Post.
Senator Henry B. Anthony, of Rhode Island, died at Providence, in that State, on the 2d. Senator Anthony has long held a prominent position in Congress, and was highly respected in the National Legislature. He was in his usual health a few hours before his death, and was attacked by vertigo and sank rapidly.
The Irish know perfectly well, or at least the great mass of them do, that if Blaine got up a quarrel with England on their account, he would not have his party at his back, and that without his party behind him his quarrel could not last long or get beyond the proper stage.
