

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.
SATURDAY.....SEPTEMBER 13, 1884.
DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
GROVER CLEVELAND,
of New York.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, of Indiana.
For Presidential Electors,
A. C. JONES, of Jackson,
L. B. ISON, of Baker,
W. D. FENTON, of Yamhill.

ENCOURAGING NEWS FROM NEW YORK.

We present this week a letter of the Hon. Wm. E. Smith, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee of New York, to a gentleman of this city. Democrats and Republicans may rely on the assertions of Mr. Smith, as his committee has made a thorough canvass of that State. From this it appears that Blaine is as unpopular there as he possibly can be. Besides the Independent revolt, Blaine has an army of Stalwart enemies opposed to him, who return his implacable hatred with compound interest. They know Blaine, they have a lively remembrance of in suits heaped upon them, and they thoroughly mistrust him, so that his honeyed promises will be unheeded. In addition there are the Arthur men, whose position may be summarized in the words imputed to President Arthur by the New York Sun: "He has lied to me once, and I will not trust him again." The officeholders appointed by Arthur will have to go to a man in the event of Blaine's election. The letter of Mr. Smith is full of good cheer and will gladden the heart of every true Democrat in the State. Here it is:

STATE OF NEW YORK,
DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE,
HOFFMAN HOUSE,
NEW YORK, SEPT. 2, 1884.
ESQ.,
EUGENE CITY, OREGON.
DEAR SIR: Yours of Aug. 22d received. The advice we receive from all parts of the State are of the most encouraging character; that the Democratic party in the State is becoming rapidly united; that such disaffection, (never extensive in its character), as has heretofore existed, is rapidly passing away; that the administration which Gov. Cleveland has given to the people of this State has called to his support in this canvass a large body of Republicans, and all the indications of the canvass, now at hand, show that the Democratic ticket will carry this State by a decisive majority.
Yours Very Truly,
WM. E. SMITH,
Chairman Ex Con.

The Oregonian said the Maine election had "no significance;" that was the day before; the day after it was vastly important, which shows what a rabid organ is. In 1876 Hayes received 17,000 majority in that State. Afterward the Greenbackers who were all Republicans fused with the Democrats and carried that State several times, notably the last time in September 1880. But it was through Republican inactivity as they carried their electoral ticket by 9,000 majority. In 1881 Robie was elected Governor over the combined Democratic-Greenback coalition candidates by the same majority. Since then the 7,000 or 8,000 Greenbackers have gone back to their old party affiliations. The Republicans took three canvasses, employed their ablest speakers in the United States for two months and spent a barrel of money. The Democrats had not a single speaker, no money, no organization. Had the Democracy made an effort they could have reduced the majority to that of the Republican majority of 1881, (9,000) but we cannot see what good it would have done. And that was the view the Democratic National Committee took of it. The Democracy hasn't a single dollar of its scanty funds to throw away, and Indiana and New York are the vital points of this campaign, and 20,000 majority in Maine, or 100,000 in Texas will not change that fact one bit. With a knowledge of this, we conceded Maine to the Republicans in our last week's number by a greater majority than was given.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says it has the affidavits of seventy-five responsible men to substantiate its charges against Blaine. The Sentinel through its attorneys has given notice that it will begin taking testimony on the 22d. This is one case where Blaine's little bluff has failed.

The Knownothing Candidate.

As long as the Knownothing party had a ghost of a show, Jas. G. Blaine was its devoted partisan. At its death he with all the rest of that party marched into the camp of the Republican party, and there found congenial fellowship. Every citizen born in a foreign land should well consider the following fac simile of the heading on the editorial page of the Kennebec, Maine, Journal, as it appeared during the Presidential campaign of 1856:

THE KENNEBEC JOURNAL.
AUGUSTA, MAINE, AUGUST 12, 1856.

THE AMERICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
MILLARD FILLMORE,
Of New York.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ANDREW J. DONALDSON,
of Tennessee,
"Put Non- but Americans on Guard."
The Way to Carry Oregon.

The necessity for an aggressive Democratic campaign in Oregon is becoming more and more apparent every day. It is almost certain that no outside money will be sent to this State by the Republican National Committee as the situation in the East will not permit it. However the local Federal office-holders will most assuredly be squeezed harder than ever before to obtain the sinews of war. The Democratic party in the State is in reality in much better trim for a contest than is usually supposed, and under proper leadership and discipline can carry the State for Cleveland. The organization should be thorough and complete; the State Central Committee should meet at once and appoint committees on ways and means; clubs should be organized; newspapers and documents disseminated and speakers in the field. The want of following these simple rules of success has given Oregon to the Republicans.

Out of possibly 8,000 Irish voters in San Francisco, 101 will vote for Blaine. That is the size of the Irish-American Blaine and Logan club of that city. San Francisco is the home of McSweeney who spent two years in a dungeon because he was suspected of having committed a crime. Mr. Cox, who has made two trips to Ireland in behalf of the Irish and one to Russia to aid the persecuted Jews, who sat with Blaine in Congress, said he had learned with surprise that Blaine was the advocate of the rights of foreign citizens. Mr. Cox said that in all his effort to obtain them justice Mr. Blaine had never aided him, and that but two Republicans had supported his measures. Here is what McSweeney thinks of Blaine's foreign policy: "I feel strongly, I assure you, on this subject, and had it not been for the loss that I have just sustained here in my fight with the enemy, I certainly would have gone to the States to work against Blaine and his party, armed with Lowell's original letter, to tell the story of my imprisonment and Republican sneers at my appeal for protection."

The people's Senator, Hon. J. H. Slater, will stump the State for Cleveland. Due notice of his appointments will be given.

Notice to Farmers.

The Eugene City Mills have been thoroughly overhauled and the capacity for receiving and storing grain increased. Wheat cleaners of the latest and most improved patterns have been added. The Mill Company is now prepared to store wheat on the following terms: Oregon White and White Velvet wheat will be stored free of charge; all other kinds will be charged 1 1/2 cents per bushel for storage, and 1 1/2 cents per bushel for unloading and loading the same on board cars or wagons.

We have a large amount of wheat bags on hand which we will dispose of to suit purchasers.

New Firm.

Dr. N. J. Taylor desires to inform his patrons and the public generally that he has associated with him Dr. J. C. Eberly, late of St. Joseph, Mo., in the practice of dentistry. Dr. Eberly has had fourteen years of experience in his profession, and has taken a course in the Philadelphia Dental College. All work warranted to give satisfaction. Office in Walton's brick.

Syrup of Figs.

Nature's own true laxative. Pleasant to the Palate, acceptable to the Stomach, harmless in its nature, painless in its action. Cures Habitual Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion and kindred ills. Cleanses the system, purifies the blood, regulates the Liver and acts on the Bowels. Breaks up Colds, Chills and Fevers, etc. Strengthens the organs on which it acts, better than bitters, nauseous Liver medicines, pills, salts and drugs. Sample bottles free, and large ones for sale by F. M. Wilkins, Eugene, W. S. Lee, Junction.

NEW DENTIST.—Dr. W. V. Henderson will open a dental office in Hays' new brick building October 1st. Mr. Henderson is well known in Eugene and vicinity, and has the reputation of being a first-class workman, having had eight years experience. Give him a call.

STEAM SAW MILL FOR SALE.—A steam saw mill that cost $5,000, can be purchased for $2,150. This is one of the best bargains ever offered in the county. For further particulars inquire at this office or of A. Stinit or J. M. Hendricks.
