A MARVELOUS STORY TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.

FROM THE SON: "28 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 20, 1882."
"Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the enclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case. Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the Sarsaparilla in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct. 21, 1882. Yours gratefully, HIRAM PHILLIPS."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Itches, Sores, Bolls, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. ## Workingmen, Choose.

[East Oregonian.]

Received of W. Fisher $25,000, for which I was to deliver to him one-eighth of one of the twenty-four shares of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company.

JAMES G. BLAINE.

Good and pure government lies at the foundation of the progress and prosperity of every community.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

The amount of stock this 1-192 of franchise would have in the end is $425,000, and the number of acres of land it represents is nearly 275,000. I thought for a small flyer ten of you in Boston might take it—$2,500 each. You would get ultimately for $2,500, $42,000 stock and the avails of 27,000 acres of land. You would have a splendid thing of it.

J. G. BLAINE.

The laboring classes should be protected in their efforts peaceably to assert their rights when endangered by aggregated capital.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

Your offer admitting me to a participation in the new railroad enterprise is generous. I thank you sincerely for it. I wish Mr. Caldwell would make definite his proposition to dispose of a portion of a share of interest to me. I do not feel that I shall prove a dead-head in the enterprise. I see various channels in which I know I can be useful.

J. G. BLAINE.

Corporations are created by law for certain defined purposes. Within their legitimate sphere they should be protected; but when by combination or the exercise of unwarranted power they oppress the people, the same authority which created should restrain them, and protect the rights of the citizens.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

If the Little Rock men had not come to me when at their wits end and in despair, the bill would have been lost, or postponed for a year. I sent my page to Logan, who made the objection, which I sustained, and the bill passed. You can tell Caldwell that I did him a great favor.

I thoroughly appreciate the courtesy with which you have treated me in this railroad matter. It is natural that I should make as much as I fairly can out of the arrangement. I am anxious to acquire the interest promised me by Mr. Caldwell.

J. G. BLAINE.

All statutes should recognize the care of the State for honest toil.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

When reduction (of taxation) becomes necessary—!

J. G. BLAINE.

Public office is a public trust.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

It is a malicious lie.

J. G. BLAINE.

Tell the truth.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

New York World: Blaine is a millionaire, Butler is a millionaire and Cleveland is a man of moderate circumstances. Mr. Cleveland has had opportunities to enrich himself in office, but he has attended to public business as though it were a solemn trust. Old-fashioned people who believe in old-fashioned honesty will vote for the man whose official record is unstained by jobbery or unfaithfulness—the man who had never had in his pocket a dollar dishonestly or shamefully earned.

Mr. Conkling is reported to have substantially said to a personal friend: "If Cleveland was a good enough man for Mr. Blaine's friends to make Governor of New York, perhaps some Republicans may think he is a good man to make President."

CHARLOTTE MORRILL.

The Republicans are crying for "soap" and declare if a good supply is not forthcoming that Ohio is going Democratic sure in October. "Soap" will not save it this time.

Vote for Cleveland and tariff reform and save freight from Liverpool to Portland—fifteen cents more to the bushel on your wheat.

Butler's boom in New York has "burst."

The Hon. Mr. Mulligan and the Hon. Mr. Blaine.

It was in May 1876, that the Hon. James Mulligan, private secretary of W. Fisher (a broker who was interested in some legislation that came before the House) arrived in Washington. He came with some letters that Mr. Blaine had written to appear before a Democratic investigating committee. Naturally the Hon. Mr. Blaine called on him. He wanted those letters. Of that visit there are two accounts. We leave it to our readers as to which is the consistent and true one. Here is Mulligan's story under oath.

"He swore that Mr. Blaine had come to him and implored him most piteously under oath to give him those letters—there were 15 of them in all, that Mr. Blaine almost went on his knees, saying that if the Committee should get hold of these papers it would ruin him and sink him forever; that Mr. Blaine talked even of suicide and made an appeal in behalf of his wife and his six children, and that then he opened to him (Mulligan) the prospect of a consulship abroad; that Mr. Blaine finally, wanted to see the letters, which Mulligan permitted him to do on condition that he would return them; that Mr. Blaine did return them and then wanted to look at them again and then refused to give them back and against Mr. Mulligan's protest kept them in his possession."

"The next day Mr. Blaine testified that what Mr. Mulligan had said about his (Mr. Blaine's) being on his knees and talking of ruin and suicide was 'mere fancy.' As to the consulship, he admitted he had alluded to something like that in a jocular way. He disclaimed meaning to say that Mr. Mulligan falsified; 'not at all.' Mr. Mulligan might have put a wrong construction on what was said. But as to the letters Mr. Blaine admitted that he took them from Mulligan, and kept them against Mr. Mulligan's remonstrance. Mr. Blaine insisted that the letters being his 'private correspondence,' were his property, in whatever way obtained, and he also refused to give them up to the committee."

An extraordinary manner to obtain a few harmless letters. Republican papers explain this little episode in Blaine's life by claiming that G. W. Curtis is a hypocrite and Carl Schurz a Pharisee.

LET REPUBLICANS READ.

A Pointed Letter From Senator Morrill's Widow.

A Republican committeeman, in Ohio, wrote to "Hon Lot M. Morrill," August, Maine, to this effect:

"Dear Sir: The situation in Ohio is a critical one. The party is in trouble on account of the attacks on Mr. Blaine as the candidate of the party. Your well known character as a pure and upright statesman, and coming from Blaine's own State, you can refute the charges as no one else can. We hope you will come to us in this emergency, and make as many speeches as possible."

Now Hon. Lot M. Morrill, ex-Senator, ex-Governor and ex-Secretary of the Treasury has been dead eighteen months. His widow, a lady of much force of character, and loyally devoted to her husband's views and honor, announces that she at once sent to the writer of that letter the following reply:

"To Brown, Chairman, Columbus, Ohio; I am surprised and shocked to receive such a communication. I thought every citizen of this country knew my husband was at rest. I am in mourning for him, but, as much as I mourn his death, I thank my Father in heaven that He called him home before the party he loved so well and did so much for had so disgraced itself as to nominate so wicked and corrupt a man for the highest office within the gift of the American people, as I know and my husband knew James G. Blaine to be. If he were alive he would not support Mr. Blaine or any such man, even at the bidding of his party."

It is well known that Lot M. Morrill, one of the most sturdy honest Republican statesmen Maine ever produced, believed, with Wm. Pitt Fessenden that James G. Blaine was a superfluous rascal. The elicitation of the Morrill opinion on Blaine will do him no good anywhere.

There would be as much sense of Democrats rejoicing over Arkansas or Texas going Democratic as it is for Republicans to hurt honest Maine.
