

A Brief Editorial.

The shortest editorial I ever remember to have seen in any journal, says the London correspondent of the New York World, was written by an eccentric old editor, named Laing, in a paper called the Mofussilite, at one time well known in India. The celebrated Goham case—that endless ecclesiastical row—had been going on for months, filling all the newspapers and weighing down all the mails. When the English journals were eagerly opened for news from home, nothing appeared but column after column about the Goham case. It was upon this that Laing wrote the editorial I have mentioned, and I have often thought that it combined many of the greatest merits an editorial can possess—for it was short, could be understood by everybody, and it faithfully reflected public opinion. This was all, just as it stood, head-line and all:

THE GOHAM CASE.

Damn the Goham case.

Everybody was thinking that, and when Laing said it, there was a great shout of approbation.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured. It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and cleans nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the Vigor is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dyes, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BURCHER writes from Kirby, O., Feb. 2, 1884: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Gazette) writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 8, 1884: "Ever since my hair began to give away I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor. It has given me a new growth of hair, and I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and I am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

MR. AUGUS FAIRBANKS, leader of the celebrated "Fairbank Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 8, 1884: "Ever since my hair began to give away I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor. It has given me a new growth of hair, and I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and I am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

MR. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Charlestown, Mass., April 11, 1884, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using Ayer's Hair Vigor the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the Vigor, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."
