youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair tidekened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks failing of the bair, and stimu-lates a weak and sieldy growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and neals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladles' Hair Dressing, the Victor is unequalisd; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a deliente, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

Mr. C. P. Bricher writes from Kirby, O., Valy 3, 1882; "Last fall my hair commenced failing out, and in a short time I became nearly build. I used part of a bottle of Aven's HAJR Vision; which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorarily, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely build."

J. W. Bowen, proprietor of the McArthur (Olio) Kagnirer, says: "ANER'S HAIR VICES is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. It is no promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The Videon is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the proparation ever fulled to give estire satisfaction."

Mr. Anous Farmarra, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairu Ezmity" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Bazios, Mass., Feb. 6, 1889: "Ever since my hair begañ to give silvery evidence of the change which Secting time procureth. I have used Aven's Main Vinor, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orntors, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

Mus. O. A. Prescort, writing from Is Eta St., Charlestones, Mass., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my had came off. It themselvery rapolity, and I was fast growing bald. On using Arker's Ham. Yuson the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued it grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularity used but one bettle of the Vinon, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."
