half after eleven."

"Now, Jarphly, dont you sit there and falsify to me. I am no fool, if you think I am,"

"Amandy, I never said you wuz; you know I didn't. I only say you were mistaken, my dear, for it was only half-past eleven, or twenty-five minutes of twelve.

"Jarphly, wot's the use of you sitting there and lying? Don't you think I could see the clock?"

"Well, Amandy, I've got nothing to say if you'd rather believe a ninety-five cent, nickle plated clock than your own married husband," responded Mr. Jarphly deeply injured.

Unhealthy lown.

A traveling man's trip book was picked up on Seventh street, St. Paul One page read as follows:

Liver regulator, 15 cents. Dinner, 50 cents. Cigar, 25 cents. Liver adjuster, 10 cents. Drayage, 25 centa. Kidney bitters, 5 cents. Newspaper, 5 cents. Toothache drops, 15 cents. Gargle, 10 cents.

A Sermon Spoiled.

"What seems to be the matter?" he asked mildly as they were returning from church; "didn't you enjoy the *Fmou!"

"Enjoy the sermon?" she repeated, shortly; "and that odious Mrs. Smith sitting directly in front of me with a new fall wrap on that never cost a cent less than $135. You must think I have a very warm, religious temperament -New York Sun.

Speaking of the Bible, Carlyle said: "It is a wonderful book, that. Some years ago I road the four Gospels through, and I wept a great deal over it. It is full of sincerities and every lasting truths. I did not find Christ that pound-of-fresh-butter character which people have made of Him. On which people have made of Him. On the contrary, He is a man with a great deal of anger in him, but the anger all on the right side. He always has a sharp word to return to the Pharisees. When one who has kept the Ten Commandments asks Him whether that is not enough He tells him no--'Leave all thy riches and follow me." .

Speaking of the indifference of the people of our times toward high minded men, he said: "If Jesus Christ were to come to-day people would not even crucify Him; they would ask Him to dinner, and hear what he had to say, and make fun of it."

Brown to Jones-No, I can't take your wager; I never bet, I declared off last year; it's too risky. My friend Smith bet me ten dollars that out of fifty persons next passing us over half would be colored people. Just as I was about to win 'long came a negro funeral procession, and I lost. Smith knew they were coming up the street when he covered my ten spot. No, I don't bet now.
