

Eugene City Business Directory.

BETTMAN, G.—Dry goods, clothing, groceries and general merchandise, southwest corner Willamette and Eighth streets.

MATLOCK BROS.

SUCCESSORS TO T. G. Hendricks.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE.

Consisting of Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Groceries, Nails, Crockery and Tobaccos.

EUGENE MARBLE WORKS.

Marble Headstones, TOMBS, MONUMENTS AND MARBLE WORK.

GUS HICKETHIER, Proprietor.

McClung & Johnson.

LANE COUNTY MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION.

Our Stock is now Complete!

Our Aim is to Sell the Best Goods for the Least Money.

Is the Life of Trade!

SLOAN BROTHERS.

Horses Shod for $2 Cash.

Opposition is the Life of Trade!

Liberal Discounts for Cash.

Opposition is the Life of Trade!

SLOAN BROTHERS.

Horses Shod for $2 Cash.

Shop on the Corner of 8th and Olive Sts.

Boot and Shoe Store.

A. HUNT, Proprietor. Will hereafter keep a complete stock of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes!

MY GOODS ARE FIRST-CLASS!

NOTICE!

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

SPORTSMAN'S EMPORIUM.

CHARLES M. HORN, Practical Gunsmith.

GUNS, RIFLES, Fishing Tackles and Materials.

Book and Stationery Store.

SCHOOL & MISCELLANEOUS BOOKS.

WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER.

B. F. DORRIS, DEALER IN STOVES, RANGES, Pumps, Pipes, Metals, TINWARE.

WELLS DRIVEN PROMPTLY.

Central Market.

Fisher & Watkins PROPRIETORS.

BEEF, MUTTON, PORK AND VEAL.

TO THE FARMERS.

F. M. WILKINS, Practical Druggist & Chemist.

DRUGS, MEDICINES, Brushes, Paints, Glass, Oils, Leads.

TOILET ARTICLES, Etc.

Physicians' Prescriptions Compounded.

The Machinery of the Alps.

The Alps constitute a great machine, which manufactures water out of snow and supplies it to all Europe.

The Mosques of Algiers.

Them's Vittles.

A select circle are smiling over one of the incidents in the bridal tour of a wealthy Detroit widower.

Shares in Anglo-American Cable Company have advanced in London.

The Duchy of Schleswig, recently wrested from Denmark by Germany.

Papers in Madeira state that the treaty with the United States provides that sugars to the number of 16 will be admitted by America free of duty.

Sir George Bowen, Governor of Hong Kong, has been ordered by telegraph by the English government to refuse permission to any French men-of-war to refit or ship contraband or war stores within the limits of that colony.

It is estimated that the revenue in Germany for the year has decreased 200,000,000 marks, and the expenditures have increased 2,000,000 marks.

A protectionist league has been formed in Paris, whose purposes it will be to oppose the proposed duties on food imports.

Subscriptions to the fund, which is being raised for the widows of A. M. Sullivan, M. P., come in slowly.

A cut down of from 5 to 10 per cent is to go into effect soon at the Amoskeag, Stark, Armory, Langdon and Manchester corporations, at Manchester, N. H.

John Adams, Henry Ward, Davy Pigeon, each aged 12 years, and Burt James, who has been arrested at New Lisbon, Wis., at the instance of the secret service of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Company, charged with having placed obstructions upon the track of that road near New Lisbon recently.

FOREIGN TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Dynamiters are abroad in France. Cholera has appeared at Buenos Ayres. The Chinese are still blocking Kelung.

China will not consent to even temporary occupation of Formosa.

The schooner Laveclar capsized near Pilgrims, Can., last week, drowning seven persons.

The English government has sent 200 tons of torpedoes to protect coaling stations in China.

The corporation in the city of Limerick, Ireland, have refused to pay any attention to the writ for extra police.

Twelve of the leaders in the recent riots at Perthadown have been imprisoned.

General Wolsley left Dongola in the Pinnace last week to inspect the depots and hasten the advance of troops.

It is reported that an Irish organization in England has sent a large sum of money to aid the cause of the Crofters.

An injunction has been granted in London restraining Miss Devey from publishing Lord Lytton's letters to his wife.

The mammoth steamer Great Eastern has sailed from England for New Orleans with European exhibits for the exposition.

Bullion from Holland to the amount of $30,000 was purchased in London in open market, last week, for shipment to America.

The Quebec Central Railway is blockaded by the recent snow storm.

The continued cold weather in France is exercising a favorable effect on cholera mortality, which does not exceed one in 3,000.

Frederick J. Allen, Vice-President of the Young Ireland Society, charged with treason felony, has been committed to Dublin for trial.

The steamer Etna, which left Hamburg recently for New York, has put into Queenstown, with her main shaft and machinery damaged.

A Panama dispatch says: Peace has been restored in Cundinamarca and Santander, owing to the active intervention of the federal government.

General Wolsley has received a letter from General Gordon, dated November 4th, saying he has heard of the murder of Stewart and others.

Victor Guichard, aged 81, senior member of the French Chamber of Deputies, died last week while conversing with colleagues at the Palais Bourbon.

Call and other towns in the southern states of Colombia last week felt the most severe shock of earthquake that has been experienced for three years.

Another attack was made by rebels on Suakin last week, which was promptly repulsed, and Egyptian cavalry is now in pursuit of the flying enemy.

Final returns from the recent election for the second chamber of the states general of Holland show that 44 anti-liberals and 42 liberals are returned.

The Swiss government forbids railway cars from Paris to cross the frontier until the passengers have been subjected to thorough medical inspection.

Dispatches from Admiral Courbet, dated Kelung, admit numerous losses to landing parties. It is believed that the Chinese have infected their buildings.

The carpenters and sailmakers' shops in the dock of the North German Lloyd Steamship Company, at Bremerhaven, were destroyed by fire last week.

Of the eight arrests made at Rostov, Russia, some are of the aristocracy. Many ladies have been arrested. They are charged with being concerned in nihilist plots.

DOMESTIC TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Henry Irving will not play at San Francisco. Boston is taking precautions against cholera. Butte City, M. T., is being worked by burglars.

William H. Vanderbilt and family are in Detroit.

Canal boats in the East are tying up for the winter.

The iron trade is very quiet in all departments.

The Swaim courtmartial is in session at Washington.

J. A. Greene, a reformed gambler, is dying at Philadelphia.

Pension payments of the present month amount to $13,000,000.

Hard times are being experienced all through Pennsylvania.

The Colton land case is now being argued at San Francisco.

One hundred and four Mormons arrived in New York last week.

John Dargie, aged 54, committed suicide at Oakland, Cal., last week.

New York banks now hold $37,484,000 in excess of legal requirements.

There will be a civil service examination at San Francisco, December 11th.

T. B. Howd, of Beveridge, N. Y., a prominent Mason, is dead, aged 74.

The South American Commission held sessions in San Francisco last week.

The long drought in North Carolina has drained all streams to small proportions.

The Washington monument at Washington is rapidly approaching completion.

Governor Crosby, in his annual report, estimates the population of Montana at 84,000.

A. D. January, Deputy Treasurer of California, is a defaulter to the amount of $30,000.

Duncan C. Ross challenges any man in the world to wrestle for from $5,000 to $10,000.

Secretary McCulloch is busily engaged in the preparation of his annual report to Congress.

The steamships Donan and Umbra last week brought to New York $1,000,000 in gold coin.

There were 9,000 delegates to the Cattle-men's Convention, which met at St. Louis last week.

Tom Walling defeated Billy Lynn in a six-round prize fight at Merced, Cal., the other day.

Blaine and Cleveland have been invited to attend the opening of the New Orleans exposition.

PORTLAND MARKET REPORT.

FLLOUR—Fancy extra, # bbl, $4.25; superfine, $3.00; country brands, $2.75.

WHEAT—There is no improvement manifest, private cables continuing to report sales difficult at half prices.

Butte City, M. T., is being worked by burglars.

William H. Vanderbilt and family are in Detroit.

Canal boats in the East are tying up for the winter.

The iron trade is very quiet in all departments.

The Swaim courtmartial is in session at Washington.

J. A. Greene, a reformed gambler, is dying at Philadelphia.

Pension payments of the present month amount to $13,000,000.

Hard times are being experienced all through Pennsylvania.

The Colton land case is now being argued at San Francisco.

One hundred and four Mormons arrived in New York last week.

John Dargie, aged 54, committed suicide at Oakland, Cal., last week.

New York banks now hold $37,484,000 in excess of legal requirements.

There will be a civil service examination at San Francisco, December 11th.

T. B. Howd, of Beveridge, N. Y., a prominent Mason, is dead, aged 74.

The South American Commission held sessions in San Francisco last week.

The long drought in North Carolina has drained all streams to small proportions.

The Washington monument at Washington is rapidly approaching completion.

Governor Crosby, in his annual report, estimates the population of Montana at 84,000.

A. D. January, Deputy Treasurer of California, is a defaulter to the amount of $30,000.

Duncan C. Ross challenges any man in the world to wrestle for from $5,000 to $10,000.

Secretary McCulloch is busily engaged in the preparation of his annual report to Congress.

The steamships Donan and Umbra last week brought to New York $1,000,000 in gold coin.

There were 9,000 delegates to the Cattle-men's Convention, which met at St. Louis last week.

SAN FRANCISCO MARKETS.

FLLOUR—Trade is fairly active at steady rates. We quote: San Francisco extra, best, at $4.25@4.30; medium, $3.50@4.00; shipping superfine, $2.50@3.00.

WHEAT—In the market there is very little of interest to note. The tables at the Produce Exchange present a goodly array of offerings, but buyers do not respond with any particular degree of promptness.

Barley—In the market there is very little of interest to note. The tables at the Produce Exchange present a goodly array of offerings, but buyers do not respond with any particular degree of promptness.

Butte City, M. T., is being worked by burglars.

William H. Vanderbilt and family are in Detroit.

Canal boats in the East are tying up for the winter.

The iron trade is very quiet in all departments.

The Swaim courtmartial is in session at Washington.

J. A. Greene, a reformed gambler, is dying at Philadelphia.

Pension payments of the present month amount to $13,000,000.

Hard times are being experienced all through Pennsylvania.

The Colton land case is now being argued at San Francisco.

One hundred and four Mormons arrived in New York last week.

John Dargie, aged 54, committed suicide at Oakland, Cal., last week.

New York banks now hold $37,484,000 in excess of legal requirements.

There will be a civil service examination at San Francisco, December 11th.

T. B. Howd, of Beveridge, N. Y., a prominent Mason, is dead, aged 74.

The South American Commission held sessions in San Francisco last week.

The long drought in North Carolina has drained all streams to small proportions.

The Washington monument at Washington is rapidly approaching completion.

Governor Crosby, in his annual report, estimates the population of Montana at 84,000.

A. D. January, Deputy Treasurer of California, is a defaulter to the amount of $30,000.

Duncan C. Ross challenges any man in the world to wrestle for from $5,000 to $10,000.

Secretary McCulloch is busily engaged in the preparation of his annual report to Congress.

The steamships Donan and Umbra last week brought to New York $1,000,000 in gold coin.