

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1884.

A Change in Office Demanded.

Republican politicians, office holders and newspapers throughout the country are busily engaged in formulating a plan to save the innocent who have been hanging to the Government teat for these many years from the slaughter. The Oregonian in a recent issue says "It is possible under the provisions of the tenure of office law for the Republican senate to prevent sweeping changes in the office to which appointments are made by and with the advice and consent of the senate." Where the Republicans lay this unction to their souls and take solace from the prospects of a longer lease of office they overlook the fact that this law was formed for the purpose of turning rascals out and to secure honesty in the administration of the affairs of the Government. It was the arrogance and the extravagance with which these offices were administered that led the people to declare for a change at the ballot box and by the help of Grover Cleveland and Thos. A. Hendricks they are not going to be deprived of the benefit of the change if they have declared for by any unprecedented or uncalled for arbitrary action on the part of a Republican senate.

The statement that Lucius Quintus Curtius Lamar, as the Oregonian named him in a fine strain of satire, brought suit for $100,000 against the U. S. Government, a few days after Cleveland's election for cotton destroyed during the war, is slightly incorrect. The cotton was not destroyed it was confiscated, the suit was brought years ago instead of a few days since, when the truthful Associated Press informed us that suit was brought, the court had given a decision on the case, and finally the plaintiff was not Senator Lamar, of Mississippi, but the heirs of Gazaway B. Lamar, of New York City, who bought the cotton in Georgia as agent for British manufacturers. With the exception of these trifling inaccuracies the four line telegram of the Associated Press contains no lies that we know of.

A sapient Britisher now traveling in the U. S., writes to the London Times as follows, "I had heard much of American newspapers, but I must say that I have been disappointed. The first pages of some of the largest dailies of this country are given up to chicken advertisements. The Americans seem to be wild over a certain breed of roosters." The London Quarterly Review solemnly announced that the parties in Illinois were tied "but that the result depended on New York." The French newspapers are making the statement that M. Cleveland Grover has been elected to succeed M. Arthur Chester.

Rev. Buffalo Ball, it is said, is not pushing his libel suit against the N. Y. Post with any great diligence. That great and good man is not so keen for his wounded honor as he was a short time since. The Post stands ready for trial at any time, and if Mr. Ball is the worthy man he is reported to be he will bring the suit and then we shall see what we shall see.

The Nashville (Tenn.) American says: "The election of Cleveland and Hendricks puts us all on a level and to-day the Government has no truer friend, no better soldiers should the flag be assailed, no people more devoted to the Constitution of the United States, than the men of the South.

Mr. Blaine lost the three doubtful States that Garfield carried in 1880. He got 48,000 less of a majority in Michigan than Garfield, 60,000 less in Iowa, 60,000 less in Massachusetts, and 90,000 less in Illinois. It's the wrong kind of magnetism.

George Bancroft, the historian, was secretary of the Navy thirty-nine years ago and established the Annapolis naval academy. He recently called on W. W. Corcoran, Washington banker and philanthropist to congratulate him on the election of a Democratic President.

A tax that draws five times as much proportionally from the poor man as from the rich man, a tax that is laid heaviest on every necessity and lightest on luxuries such as the Republican tariff.

The New York World gives Cleveland a popular plurality of 87,097. This ought to settle the question.

By a decision of the Supreme Court of the U. S. the anti-Chinese law has become a dead letter. The court held that a Chinese laborer who left this country prior to the enactment of the law in 1882, is entitled to admission to the United States, without a certificate. All a coolie has to do to gain entrance is to claim that he is a returned laborer, and then, if evidence is wanted who will swear falsely so cheap as a Chinaman? Very easy is it for the Coolie's master to find among the slaves of the six companies who a man will hesitate at nothing. Such has been the experience of the officers at San Francisco. Boys evidently not more than sixteen years of age have sworn that they were thirty, and been supported in it by other witnesses. If necessary, the Mongolians here will wear positively that the entire population of China was born in this country or vice versa, anything but the truth. Knowing this peculiarity of the Chinese the Pacific Coast legislators took good care that the question of admissibility should not be decided on Chinese testimony. But the Supreme Court has nullified that provision and consequently the law. There is but one remedy, to nullify the Supreme Court.

Mr. Blaine's libel suit is set for trial this month. Of course, as both parties to the suit have expressed their willingness for a prompt trial, we suppose there will be no more delays.

Historian Blaine in his "Twenty Years on the Make" says "New days bring new issues." True, the new time will bring an issue of rascals out of office that will astonish him.

President Arthur will resume the practice of law in New York when his term expires. A commendable resolution, as there is no true dignity in idleness.

Logan aptly says, so it is reported, that the Jones-Elkins committee was "a combination of conceit and stupidity and indescribable foolishness."

Col. Daniel S. Lamont will accompany Gov. Cleveland to Washington and hold the same position, private secretary, to the new President.

In Time of Peace Prepares for War.

Scarcely any doubt exists in the minds of scientific men about the appearance of cholera in this country another season. The extent and violence of the disease will depend entirely upon the sanitary condition of the country and the physical condition of the people. Persons in a perfectly healthy condition have little to fear from its approach. Dr. Koch of Berlin, in his recent writings upon the subject, says: "Under ordinary circumstances the bacilli, introduced by the mouth, are destroyed in the stomach, but give a derangement of this organ due to errors of diet or other causes, and the bacillus is enabled to escape the action of the gastric juice and to reach the alkaline intestinal fluid, where it proliferates, sets up irritation, diarrhoea and all the typical symptoms of choleraic seizure." De Haven's Dyspepsia Cure is a remedy that supplies the acid that is wanting in the digestive juices of a deranged stomach. Samples bottles free at Osburn & Co's drug store.
