

Dreams and Dreamers.

Dreams are in the main referred by the savage either to the entrance into him of some outside spirit as among the Feejeans, who believe that the spirit of a living man will leave the body to trouble sleeping folk—or to the real doings of himself.

When the Greenlander dreams of hunting, or fishing, or courting, he believes that the soul quits the body; the Dyaks of Borneo think that during sleep the soul sometimes remains in the body or travels far away being endowed, whether present or absent, with conditions which in waking moments are lacking.

The blue water plant (Nymphaea) was less fortunate, though quite as beautiful as its pink neighbor, by having its flowers and foliage lying flat on the surface, and it was remarkable that those flowers which shared the shade of the pink lily's leafage were of a much brighter blue.

Howard A. Easton, of Philadelphia, who has just returned from a business trip into Mexico, says of that country: "It is a diamond in the rough, with a good deal of rough. Mexico is a country of immense resources, agricultural and mineral."

The ailments of childhood need careful attention and wise treatment. Some people think "anything is good enough for a child, and there isn't much the matter with it anyhow."

AN EDITOR'S TESTIMONIAL.

A. M. Vaughan, Editor of the "Greenwich Review," Greenwich, O., writes: "Last January I met with a very severe accident, caused by a runaway horse. I used almost every kind of salve to heal the wound, which turned to running sores, but found nothing to do my good till I was recommended HENRY'S CARBOLIC SALVE. I bought a box, and it helped me completely well. It is the best salve in the market, and I never fall of telling my friends about it, and urge them to use it whenever in need."
