

He Squaws.

Jas. G. Blaine has withdrawn his libel suit against the Indianapolis Sentinel. He "crawfishes" as he has done twice before on this same charge in the Portland Argus years ago.

The one characteristic trait of Blaine is in no ways better illustrated than by his choice of the Sentinel over the Chicago Times as his object of warfare. The Times was too wealthy and too influential, and knew vastly too much about the case.

Now let clerical mountebank Rev. Blackball into the ring; the N. Y. Post has plenty of money to save his wounded character. He, however, appears too coy to shy his castor.

The Nebraska pastor at Granville, who gets one hundred dollars for his services to the church and earns the rest of his living by shoemaking. He is not a man to be ashamed of, but he created a terrible row on several Sunday by making announcements from pulpit relating to his own interests, to the effects that he would mend shoes better and cheaper than the opposition cobbler. Such is life.

The people ask the Legislature to pass a law regulating freights and fares over the railroads of Oregon. The present rates were extortionate even when wheat was worth 70 cents the rates were too high, now that wheat is worth only 50 cents it is simply robbery, leaving for the farmer for all his industry, nothing. The people are tired of paying dividends on watered stock.

A newly married couple at Goldendale, W. T., were chivalric recently by six ladies, four married and two single, dressed in male attire. A constable came along, and mistaking them for hoodlums threatened to run them in, when they turned and drove him out of the town.

On Saturday President Arthur nominated Hon. Jacob S. Boreman, Associate Justice of Utah to be assigned to the second district. Judge Boreman passed sentence upon John D. Lee, who had choice of death by hanging, beheading or shooting, and chose the latter method.

New Orleans Picayune: A gentleman writes that he wants a quiet place where he may stay during the exposition. He might secure a counter in the store of the man who does not advertise.

Judge Zane, of Salt Lake, has decided in the case of a polygamous wife seeking to inherit that she was neither wife nor widow and consequently has no right to inherit.

Every Democratic legislator should vote for Hon. J. H. Slater for Senator. He is the ablest advocate of their principles the people of this State have ever had in the Senate.

Lane county asks of its members that they support a bill similar to the mortgage tax law with all their ability.

It is hinted that the Oregonian will soon secede from the Union.

that I can have a fair trial, or that I can expect any other result than that which uniformly attends a political libel suit growing out of an exciting campaign in this country. If I were unfair enough to desire a jury composed of my own partisans, I could not have it. A properly constituted jury in Indiana would be composed of members of both political parties in about equal proportions. When I visited Indiana in October I was repeatedly advised that six Democrats could not be found in the State who, in a political suit, would give a verdict against their leading party organ. This did not necessarily convey an imputation upon their personal integrity as citizens, but simply that the blinding of party prejudice would utterly prevent an impartial consideration of the evidence submitted. I am perfectly able to fight the Sentinel newspaper in an Indiana court, but I would stand no chance whatever against the consolidated venom of the Democratic party of the State. With these surroundings and this prospect, it is idle for me to go through the trouble and annoyance of a trial. The questions propounded by the bill of discovery have already been substantially and fully answered by me, and I am willing to leave my written statement and answers under oath to the judgment of the public. I do not choose to have the case indirectly concluded by a technicality or suffered to lie in silence. I prefer to make this frank and open statement of the reason which has induced me to believe the prosecution of the case would be utterly fruitless.

Very respectfully, JAS. G. BLAINE.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT by virtue of a writ of execution duly issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Lane, by the Clerk thereof and to me directed, on to-wit: November 17, 1884, upon a judgment and decree of foreclosure rendered in said Court Nov 3, 1884, in a suit then and there pending in favor of C. W. Washburne plaintiff, and against James Taylor and Catherine Taylor defendants, for the sum of $531.50 in U S gold coin, and the further sum of $75.00 attorney fees, and for costs and disbursements of said suit, with interest on said judgments from date thereof at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, and a decree for the sale of the following described mortgaged premises, to-wit: 80 acres off of the north end of E. W. Begley's and wife's donation land claim, being claim No 37, sections 19 and 20, T 17, S R 6 W, in Lane County, Oregon, commanding me to sell all and singular the interest of said debt, in and to said premises. Now, therefore, by virtue of said writ of execution, and to satisfy said judgment, accruing costs and expenses of sale, I will sell the above described premises at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash in hand, at the Court House door in Eugene City, Lane County, Oregon, on Monday, December 22, 1884, between the hours of 9 o'clock a m, and 4 o'clock p m of said day.

J. R. CAMPBELL, Sheriff Lane Co, Or. Dated Nov 22, 1884.

W. V. Henderson, DENTIST.
