The Seven Bibles.

The seven Bibles of the world are the Koran of the Mohammedans, the Tri Pitikes of the Buddists, the five Kings of the Chinese, the three Vedas of the Hindoos, the Zendavesta and Scriptures of the Christians. The Koran is the most recent of them, dating about the seventh century after Christ. It is a compound of quotations from the Old and New Testament, the Talmud and the Gospel of St. Barnabas. The Eddas of the Scandinavians were first published in the fourteenth century. The Pitikes of the Buddists contain sublime morals and pure aspirations, and their author lived and died in the sixth century before Cnrist. There is nothing of excellence in these sacred books not found in the Bible. The sacred writings of the Five Kings, the word "Kings" meaning web of cloth. They contain the best sayings of the best sages on the duties of life. These sayings cannot be traced further back than 1100 years before Christ The three Verdas are the most ancient books of the Hindoos; and they are believed to date 1100 years before Christ. The Zendavesta of the Persians is the greatest of the sacred books next to our Bible.

"Are yon a native of the State?" asked the judge of the United States court, addressing a fat man who had been summoned to testify in a case of illicit distilling.

"Mostly, jedge."

"I mean were you born in this State?"

"I understand. I wa'n't born here, but I am mighty nigh a native."

"Came here when you were quite young, I suppose."

"No, sir, ain't been here but about ten year."

"How old are you?'

"Fifty."

"Then how is it that you are very near a native of the State?"

"Well, when I come here I only weighed about a hundred pounds. Now I weigh two forty, so you see 140 pounds of me are native while only 100 pounds of me came from Missouri."

Science destroys some of the most cherished popular delusions. Catgut is derived from sheep; German silver was not invented in Germany, and it contains no silver; Cleopatra's needle was not erected by her nor in her honor; Pompey's pillar had no historical connection with that personage; sealing wax does not contain a particle of wax; the tuberose is not a rose, but a polyanth; the strawberry is not a berry; Turkish baths did not originate in Turkey, and are not baths at all; whalebone is not bone, and contains not any of its properties.

A priest who knows the poor of London thoroughly tells me what to be the most important phase of the outrage campaign's results—that there are over 40,000 Irish people out of work; and of these fully one-tenth have been discharged since the recent explosions. He said, with almost tearful emphasis, that the most brutalized scoundrel in the world would hesitate if he could see the destution and disfavor amounting to prosecution which these acts have entailed upon his countrymen in English cities. They are the ones who really suffer and not the English.—London dispatch.

The official figures of the election, as given by Ainsworth R. Spofford, Librarian of Congress and compiler of the "American Almanac," are as follows: The total number of votes cast for Presidential Electors was 10,040,868. Of these Mr. Cleveland received 4,910,975 and Mr. Blaine 4,845,022.

During January 361 immigrants arrived over the Northern Pacific railroad for points west of Spokane Falls. January is the dullest month of the year for immigration, and a large number of arrivals are expected for the spring months—probably the heaviest immigration yet known.

Gentlemen's trousers are now cut very much the shape of workingmen's overhalls, straight up and down. There is about as much style and elegance to the prevailing fashion as there is in a stick of pine wood in its native State.

The Iowa Press Association will visit Washington Territory and Oregon in June. The Union Pacific and O. R. & N Co. will bring them free of charge.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the VIGOR is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The VIGOR is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

MR. ANGUS FAIRBAIRN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1882: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which fleeting time procureth, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Charlestown, Mass., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the VIGOR, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.
