It was further directed that they should be sent to the Standard for publication, with the request that they be copied by all Democratic journals in the State: WHEREAS, On the 16th day of February, A D, 1885, the Senate and House of Representatives of the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon did pass in due form a concurrent resolution that the two Houses of the Legislative Assembly should adjourn sine die at 12 o'clock midnight of Friday, the 20th day of February; and WHEREAS, On said Friday, the 20th day of February, the final joint session of the two Houses of the Legislative Assembly met in the hall of the House of Representatives for the purpose of balloting for a United States Senator for the State of Oregon, and passed a resolution that such Joint Convention should be dissolved at 11 o'clock p m of said day; and WHEREAS, The Republican majority in said Joint Convention failed to elect a United States Senator prior to the hour fixed for final dissolution; and WHEREAS, The President of said Joint Convention did at the said hour of 11 o'clock p m pronounce the said Joint Convention dissolved; and WHEREAS, The Republican majority in the two Houses of said Legislative Assembly did afterwards introduce a resolution, at variance with the regular order of business, and without suspension of the rules, and without precedent or parallel in parliamentary procedure, declaring the resolution theretofore adopted to adjourn sine die at 12 o'clock midnight, of February 20th, rescinded, and procured said rescinding resolution to be declared adopted without discussion by the presiding officers of both House; and WHEREAS, We affirm that said action on the part of the two Houses and their presiding officers is without precedent or authority, but was intended to deprive the minority of their constitutional and parliamentary rights; and WHEREAS, Having contemplated the consideration of legitimate business pending before the Legislative Assembly, we do not recognize any authority of the two Houses to sit longer in session of such Legislative Assembly, or any authority on the part of the majorities in said Houses to require our attendance thereon; therefore, be it RESOLVED, That in the judgment of the Democratic members of the two Houses of the Assembly of the State of Oregon, such session stood adjourned without day, at 12 o'clock, midnight, of the 20th day of February, A D, 1885, that we hold the proceedings of the majority in their efforts to force the continuation of the session to have been, and to be, null and void; that we denounce the partisan methods adopted by them to carry their end; that we unanimously agree that we will not re-enter the halls of our respective Houses of the Legislative Assembly, except upon the call of the Governor of this State for an extra session; that we will legally resist any and all efforts which may be made to enforce our attendance upon future sittings of the pretended continuation of the present session; and that we will support each other in so doing. Mr C L Williams has taken the contract to deliver at Springfield, two and a-half million feet of saw logs. To captivate the popular taste and surpass all previous efforts to please the palate, requires no small amount of knowledge and no little skill, and when we remember that the very agreeable fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is as beneficial to the system as it is acceptable to the stomach, we readily understand why it is the universal favorite as a cure for habitual Constipation and other ills arising from a weakness, or inactive condition of the bowels, kidneys, Liver and Stomach. Cottage Grove Items.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.] Feb 25, 1885. Mr Jas Ozment, of Siuslaw, is in town. Dr Sheldred returned from Oakland Tuesday. Mr E W Whipple returned from Portland yesterday. Sunday, Monday and Tuesday were clear and warm with slight frosts at night, but no damage was done. Clouded up and began to rain Tuesday evening and still continues. An unruly and hungry tramp undertook to get his breakfast at the hotel in this place last Saturday morning by force. He was arrested and bound over in the sum of $200, but failing to give bonds he was sent to Eugene to take his meals in the county jail. VEATCH. Last Chance. Mrs Mattie A Bridge, the talented lecturer who favored the citizens of Eugene recently with her two masterly efforts, Odd Fellowship and Human Freedom, Monday, (by request), appears in an entirely different role. Her lecture, "Mysteries and Romances of Florida," is in the humorous line, and those who heard her deliver it in Albany and elsewhere, pronounce it "immense." The Boston Post calls it a "Poem and a Picture." Nasby says; "It has what no other American woman has—real genius humor." The clergy of the East call it a "panorama passing before us in the majesty of real life." Her mules are pathetic, and double discount any animal that Josh Billings ever paraded before the public, and in addition to the negro sermons and cracker drawl, old women and hermits, she shows, on this evening, several ways of making love, and those who have heard her, says Oregon beats the world. Only 25 cents will be charged as that all may go. Remember Rhinehart's Parlor, Monday, March 2d.

Communication.

ROCK MILL, Oregon, Feb. 25, 1885. EDITOR GUARD:—Two bachelors from Cottage Grove, R M F and W W C, attended the literary society here a short time ago, and made themselves rather conspicuous in some of the most important performances of the evening by smiling at the ladies and indulging in small talk, inquiring into the price of lumber, etc. The price of lumber over-riding their "pils," they did not invest, but returned home and wrote a glowing account of their trip and adventures, which was published in the Journal. When they saw their article in said paper it looked so vastly different that they were ashamed of it and offered $500 reward for the writer who signed himself "Goose Quill." Permit us to say for the benefit of the boys, that for the $500 reward, we can exhibit the "goose" if it has not dropped the "quill," which ranges around the depot at Cottage Grove. COAST FORKERS. Barn Burned. The large barn belonging to Mr Geo Ebbert on his farm about two miles above Springfield was burned to the ground Thursday morning about 7:30 a m. The fire was discovered by Assessor McPherson, while coming to town who gave the alarm and rushed into the burning building and succeeded in saving a calf and a farm wagon. In the barn was stored about 600 bushels of wheat, 800 bushels oats, 150 bushels barley, 15 tons hay, besides a self-binder, a drill, plow, harness and other articles too numerous to mention, all of which were consumed by the fiery element. The loss will amount to $2,000, upon which there was an insurance in the State Fire Insurance company for $500. At the time of the fire Mr Ebbert was away from home. When Assessor McPherson discovered the fire flames were bursting from the top of the barn. No one had been in the top of the barn for several days previous. The loss will fall quite heavily on Mr Ebbert. Fire. All persons indebted to E W Whipple & Bro's, either by note or book account will please call and settle the same. Our store is burned and we must collect the money due us. E. W. WHIPPLE & BROS. Cottage Grove, Feb 25, 1885. For Sale.
