The Handsomest Man in Washington.

Senator M. C. Butler, of South Carolina is the handsomest man that has been in Weshington this Winter. The women enthuse over him and court him, but he has been used to that sort of thing since he wore curls and said his prayers at his mother's knee, and accepts their homage with such grace and dignity that it disarms criticism.

He married a woman seven years A. G. HOVET, H. C. HUMPHRET, W. T. PEET,
Notary, Attorney, Cashier. older than himself, who was at the time a beauty, and with whom he was much in love. She has Titian-red hair, lovely features, a perfect figure and exquisite hands and feet, and is the daughter of a house whose race has been distinguished for generations in politics, as in the social world-blueblooded, rich and talented. He has two daughters one of them a debutante, and three sons, the second a graduate of Princeton College, and now Vice Consul at Liverpool, England, who inherits his father's exceeding beauty and fascination, and who also has bril liant talent. Senator Butler's mother was a sister of Commodore Perry, of Lake Erie fame, and he bears a striking resemblance to his famous uncle as he is painted on the wall of the capitol at the head of the Senate staircase, where the naval engagement is illustrated in high colors. Senator Butler is a man of superb manners, and has very fine abilitie .- Boston Journal.

People have very different ideas as to what politeness is. A rudeness in in one would be overlooked would be instantly frowned out of all repetition in an ugly one, although the latter might be entitled to do it. We have plenty of accounts lately of a young lady in Washington, young, rich, handsome, who has debuted this season and is determined to attract attention, which she does by performing all sorts of eccentric feats, such as speaking to a gentleman she has never been introduced to, telling them to bring her cream, and bring her a double quantity drinking out of a bottle, etc. It may be eccentric, but most people would think it vulgar. When Davy Crockett was in New York, forty years ago, he called on Phillip Hone. He said Hone who was then Mayor, was the politest man he ever met. "For," declared Crockett, "he said in his own house, 'Take a drink, Mr. Crockett,' and turned his back while I took it."

AYER'S Hair Vigor

youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimu-lates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and neals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the Vigor is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly baid. I used part of a bottle of AYRE's HAIR Victor, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely baid."

J. W. Bowen, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "Aven's Hain Vision is a most excellent preparation for the bair, I speak of it from my own experience. Its me promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The Vision is also as sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give outire satisfaction."

MR. Angus Farmann, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Bosion, Mass., Frb. 6, 1889. "Ever since my hair began to give sirvery evidence of the charge which fleeting time procureth, I have used Aver's Hair Vinon, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Churlestonen, Mass., April 14, 1882, says. "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair same off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using Ayrar's Hain Viron the failing stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the Viscon, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AVER'S HATE VIGOR, It needs but a trial to convince the most skepti-
