Mohawk Items.

April 16, 1885.

Miss Holcomb is teaching the school in the Ware district.

Mr Alvin Hendricks, of Junction, has moved to Mohawk.

Mr J M Shelley, of Eugene, spent a few days in Mohawk this week.

Strawberries ripe and snow on the ground—how is that for wetfoot!

There will be a social hop at Mr

Jerry Yarnell's next Friday night.

Rev Baxter preached at the Stafford school house, to a good sized audience, last Sunday.

Chas Huffman wields the hazle at the Stafford school house, with an enrollment of 32 students.

Mr Wm Parsons paid Junction a visit last week. He is looking R Q since his return—"real quiet," you know.

Mr Andy Spores left the classic shades of Mohawk for Portland and Eastern Oregon last Monday. A pleasant trip to you Andy.

Fine prospect for fruit of all kinds, especially blackberries. Fruit trees were badly injured and some orchards almost entirely destroyed by the sleet last Winter.

The long wished for rain has come at last and the average Oregonian is again in his element. Quite a snow fell last night on the hills about 100 feet above the valley level.

A goodly number of teams have been hauling lumber from the mills on Mohawk. On Wednesday there were twelve teams on the road at one time, averaging one thousand feet per load.

Long Tom Items.

April 16, 1885.

We love to read the Smithfield items.

J H Corum, of Eugene, is teaching school in our precinct.

If you want wood chopped call on the Long Tom bachelors.

Mr Horace Cook accidentally cut his foot a few days ago while slashing brush.

Mrs W W Hinton, who is visiting relatives and friends in Eastern Oregon, is expected home soon.

C Byers is again running his market wagon. He buys all kinds of produce and pays as much as the Eugene merchants and sells goods just as cheap.

Patronize him.

Ripe strawberries on the 16th of April—who ever saw the like! We guess the Smithfield correspondent has lived his 34 years and never seen this before. If he has why don't he tell us the best way to make a strawberry pie!

Two China or golden pheasants have been seen on B M Richardson's ranch.

There was one seen late last Fall, and during the snow storm two were seen and have been seen at various times since. Sportsmen should be careful and not kill them. Any person can see at a glance that they are strangers to this coast.

NEW BEGINNER.

The stone heap employment bureau for tramps, which went into effect last December in Palmer, Hampden county, proves to be a bonanza for the town.

In ten years over 10,000 tramps have registered with Turnkey Mowry of the lock-up and have had food and lodgings gratis. The yearly average has been 1,000, but three months' trial of the stone-heap has lowered the number for the year ending March 1st to 665, reducing the monthly average of 83 to 55. It is now apparent that the tramping fraternity are

"getting on" to Palmer's stony fare, for during March but 38 have had accommodations, and these came chiefly Saturday nights. The town requires the tramp to ply the hammer at the heap in payment for lodgings and
