Were the Corvallis Sports Taken In.

Recent developments make it appear that the Corvallis sports who backed Frank Lewis streets this week. A sure sign that meney is so heavily and lost so much in his famous race with C F Gibson at San Francisco, were simply dupes, as tough as it may be on them. The story now is that Lewis is no other than the famous Jack Gibson, who came to America from England in 1883, and surprised everybody with his speed, running under the names of H Wheatley, John D Ryan and Jack Robinson, and it is now claimed that his race in San Francisco was simply a put up job to fleece his Oregon backers, but of the truth of this we know nothing. We hope it is not so. A team took a spin near the Eugene bridge Below we give an item from a New York sporting paper, which gives one version of the matter:

The 125 yard foot race between Frank Lewis of Corvallis, Oregon, and C F Gibson, which took place at Central Park, San Francisco, March 8th, in which the latter won by less than five feet, looked considerable like a job. Lewis held the lead at 100 yards, and his slowing down to let Gibson get in first, was perceptible to all who ever witnessed a sprint race. From all accounts Lewis struck Oregon in February and surprised the natives by his fast trials and was not slow in getting good backers. They followed him to Frisco and have paid dearly for their acquaintance, his description tallying with that of Jack Gib-son. I think Frank Lewis and Jack Gibson are one and the same person. One thing is certain, had he tried in his race with C F Gibson he could have won easily.

As Lewis came to the Valley over a year ago and is now said to be in the stock business The special school closed yesterday. A pie- in Eastern Oregon, it is possible the above is mistaken.

THE PERKINS FARM. - Mr H C Perkins last Thursday left a small basket of fine cherries at this office, grown on his place near Eugene. These are the first of the season for which he has our thanks. He informs us that he will have at least 1000 bushels of peach plums this season, besides other fruit in like proportions. His farm is specially adapted to fruit culture, being rich land of a sandy soil. Some day it will be worth a large sum of money, as it is only a question of a few years when places of this kind will pay handsome profits.

Short Chop.-Parties who have orchards should not neglect to make arrangements to take care of their fruit. The latest advices from the Eastern States go to show that the fruit crop there will be almost an entire failure this year, as the Winter has been so severe as to not only kill the prospects, but in many places has killed the fruit trees. With a failure in the Eastern States and a good crop on this coast, will be assured of a good price and

STABBING AFFRAYI

A Quarrel Settled by the Knife:

Yesterday about noon James Anderson and Mr. Duncan arrived from Lower Siuslaw, about 40 miles distant from this place for the purpose of consulting with Mr. G. B. Dorris concerning a stabbing affray:

From what we can learn the particulars seem about as follows: Monday May 4, Oscar and Frederick Funk met Thomas Anderson on a trail, all being residents of Indian Creek in the western part of the county on the road to Lower Siuslaw, when they assaulted him with clubs, the parties having had a dispute over some land a short time previous. On Wednesday May 6th, the two Funks and a man flamed Holt went to the ranch of a Mr Duncan, where Anderson and Duncan were putting in garden, when Frederick Funk and Holt commented clubbing Anderson and Oscar Funk essaultet Duncan. In the affray that fellowed Anderson stabbed Frederick Funk; when Holt and Oscar Funk ran. Frederick Funk staggered a short distance and fell, when Anderson and Duncan, without learning how badly Funk was hurt. started for this city.
