

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 1885.

The public debt decrease during May was $4,225,000.

Two of Gen. Grant's physicians have made a prediction that Gen. Grant will die within six months.

Mr. S. B. Petengill, of Portland, has purchased the Portland Standard, and will make a first class newspaper out of it, it is said.

Another Southern outrage: Mrs. Jefferson Davis travels eight miles every Sunday morning to teach a colored Sunday School class.

It is a strange, but nevertheless a fact, that the manufactures of Oregon are but a little greater than they were twenty years ago.

Postmaster I. N. Hibbs, of Lewiston, I. T., is a defaulter, and has gone to Canada. He is $15,000 or $20,000 short in his accounts.

Telegraphic advices concerning the prospective price of wheat are conflicting, although the burden of them are of a tenor that indicates fair prices.

Cottage Grove Items.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.] June 3, 1885.

Mrs. J. C. Wallace is quite ill.

Miss Brumley returned to Eugene last Saturday.

Born, May 29, to the wife of George Garruto, a daughter.

Mr. Johnson White is sick with dropsy of the bowels.

Messrs. Harvey and James Wallace were in Eugene Monday.

Dr. C. D. and Owen Osburn were in town Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. Ed Cathcart was quite ill a few days ago, but is reported better now.

The Vigor of Life company held a street concert in town one evening last week.

Mr. Darwin Bristow and wife made a visit to Pleasant Hill last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Robt. Callison was in town last Wednesday and Thursday, visiting at the residence of Mr. Bristow.

Decoration Day was observed here by some of the friends of the departed, strewing flowers upon their graves.

The residence of Mr. Nat Martin, about five miles west of this place, was destroyed by fire at 5 A. M. yesterday, with a portion of the contents. The building and furniture were insured.

VERITY.

Auction of Oil Paintings, Etc.

Mr. H. M. James is now auctioneering off in Walton's brick in this city daily, his large stock of genuine oil paintings, in magnificent gold frames, choice chromos, handsomely mounted, a specially fine assortment of notions and musical merchandise, all of which must go to make room for new importations in other lines now ordered and soon to arrive. Auction to begin at 10 A. M., and to continue daily until all is sold. Fine concerts to enliven the hours and quicken sales. Ladies especially invited to come. Rare bargains at private sale between auction hours.

FUNERAL NOTICE.—Mrs. Nellie Noah, daughter of H. C. Owen, died at Townsend, Montana, June 4th. The body will arrive at Eugene City, Sunday at 4 o'clock, by special train, and be buried Monday at 10 o'clock, a. m. Sermon at the residence of H. C. Owen on Eleventh street. Her many friends in her childhood's home, will bear with regret of the early demise of one who had gained the esteem and good will of all by her many good qualities.

DIED.—At the family residence, about seven miles south of Eugene, June 1, 1885, of consumption, Mrs. W. D. Renshaw, aged 57 years. The remains were buried in the Masonic cemetery June 3d, a large number of relatives and friends being present. Thus another of the pioneer women of Oregon passes away. The relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends throughout Lane county.

THE NEXT ATTRACTION.—On or about the 14th of this month the ladies of this community will be entertained at the St. Charles Hotel parlor with a grand display of French patterns, hats and bonnets, which will be sent here by the celebrated "Bouquet" millinery store of Portland. The prices of hats, plumes, tips, etc., will open the eyes of the fair sex.

CITY LOTS PURCHASED.—Gov. Whitaker last Thursday purchased of Mr. L. H. Wheeler the residence and lots on Tenth street just back of his vacant lots, paying $1,000 for the same. The Governor does not positively know whether or not he will build this summer.

LAND SOLD.—Mr. J. A. Sheets sold to Mr. Pickens, one day this week, 160 acres on Spencer creek for $500.

Brevities.

Only one week until Commencement. The huckster stands on Pioneer Day did but little business.

Mr. J. A. Ebbert returned to his home Thursday from a visit north.

Mr. A. Noltner, editor and proprietor of the Portland Standard, is in the city.

Considerable reading matter crowded out this week; also a few advertisements.

Hon. R. B. Cochran intends building a new dwelling on his farm near Co-burg.

The Stevens and Sheets farms were both sold through the Stinit real estate agency.

Mr. H. N. Crain, who has been quite sick during the past week, is recovering.

Mrs. McDonald, nee Gusta Osburn, is visiting at the residence of her parents in this city.

The Vigor of Life crowd were here last Monday. Business was very limited with them.

A daughter of Mr. John Blakely, who lives on the Middle Fork, is quite ill with typhoid fever.

Mr. D. R. Blackburn, who stops at Baker's Hotel, lost a purse on Pioneer Day containing $140, in this city.

We acknowledge a pleasant call from Mr. C. B. Haynes, representing the Pioneer Press Company, St. Paul, Minn.

Senator Enoch Hoult, of Harrisburg, the father of the railroad bill, was in Eugene yesterday visiting relatives and friends.

A weight sociable will be held at the residence of B. F. Dorris on Saturday evening, June 6th, for the benefit of the Baptist church.

A team belonging to Jesse Gross took a short spin yesterday and landed against the fence of the McClaren property. No damage.

Senator Dorris has been elected by Eugene lodge A. O. U. W. as representative to the Grand Lodge, which meets in Portland in July.

During the past twenty-four hours several very fine showers have fallen. You can almost see "garden truck and sich" grow. It has also benefitted the grain greatly.

A horse belonging to a Mr. Curran, hitched in the yard of Stewart's stable, last Wednesday, reared back and fell, hurting it so that the animal died the next day. It was valued at $100.

Uncle Jack Doak of Sislaw at tended the Pioneer reunion. This is the first time he has been able to be in town for over eight months. We are pleased to see his genial face once again.

Frank Durkee, a boy of about 15, while playing in a boat with a companion at East Portland, was thrown into the river by the waves of a passing steamer on Saturday last, and was drowned.

Miss DeEtta Cogswell, who for the past two weeks seemed to be so rapidly regaining health and strength after her long dangerous illness, is again confined to her room, having taken a severe relapse.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.—The McGibney family herald their return to "their home in Portland after an absence of ten years," in flaming posters. This family is well remembered here as a father, mother and six children, who gave family concerts on Sunday evenings at New Market theater in this city some dozen years or more ago. According to the bill the family has increased in these ten years of absence by the addition of six children by birth, and one by marriage, the oldest son having taken unto himself a wife. In numerical strength the family is certainly a success, and will in time be able to parade as the "great American family" without reference to their musical ability.—Evening Telegram.

A RELIC.—A hat was shown at the Pioneer gathering by Mr. Lester Hulm that he purchased at the store of Mr. James Huddleston, then situated upon the bank of the Willamette river near the Eugene bridge, then the only store south of Corvallis. It is in a good state of preservation and was inspected by many people.

BORN.—On June 3, about eight miles west of Eugene, to the wife of W. B. Cleveland, a son. It would be appropriate to name him Grover.
