large as common-sized gloria mundis. Though numerous causes may operate to turn the hair gray, all that is needed to restore the natural color is Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer. For more than twenty years its sales have been enormous, but we have yet to learn of its first failure. An elastic step, buoyant spirits, and clear complexion, are the results of pure blood, The possessor of healthy blood enjoys a clearness of perception, impossible when the blood is heavy with impurities. Take Aver's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and vitalizer. On a warrant a 12-year-old boy by the name of Giles was arrested at Albany last Monday, charged with having knowingly purchased some stolen property. He was given an examination before Justice Kinsey last Tuesday evening, and was discharged. The boy is undoubtedly a fit subject for a reform school. It is too bad that the State has not provided such an institution for boy criminals. Major Gunn, the dead Olympia journalist was hopelessly in debt. The inventory of his property does not cover the mortgage thereon. In speaking of the fact the Standard says that no Olympia paper has earned enough money to pay the ruling prices for composition, and that were it not for the outside reacures all of them would have been wrecked. And yet some one is continually starting and failing with a new publication there.

TRUTH.-The following bit is going the rounds of the press, and seems to be considered appropriate elsewhere as we know it to be here: "Editors are often blamed for saying too much, whereas what they do say is but a their great misfortune they have the consoladrop in the bucket of what they are told-but do not repeat. Everybody with an ax to grind, aympathy and kind wishes of the Eutaxians. an enemy to disparage, or an animosity to gratify, pours his tale into the scribe's ear with the hope that the same will be published at the editorial risk. If every hit of informer tion that leaks into a newspaper office should be printed you would see lively times."

ARRESTED .- Quite's commotion occurred in the postoffice yesterday about Il o'clock, One Henry Holloway came in and inquired for his mail, when very quickly a deputy sheriff from Multoomah county arrested the party. He is charged with stealing a team and wagon in East Portland about two years ago. The party protested his innocence of the charge. He was placed in the county jail for safe keeping and will be taken to Portland by this morning's train.
