

Senator Elected.

The vote for U. S. Senator on the first day resulted as follows: For John H. Mitchell, 24; for George H. Williams, 15; and 12 scattering. Democrats solid for Slater.

The ballot which resulted in the election of John H. Mitchell on the second day was as follows:

For Mitchell—Allen, Barnes, Beal, Bird, Black, Blakney, Burch, Cameron, Carson, Cartwright, Chandler, Cole, Connor, Craven, Cusick, Cyrus, H. S. Davenport, Downing, Flynn, Geer, Gibson, Gilbert, Hall, Hayes, Hirsch, Jolly, Kenworthy, Leisen-vorber, Lewis, Lyle, Mayo, McHaley, Chas. Miller, H. B. Miller, Montayne, Morrow, Peary, Porter, Poescher, Reed, Rogers, Saunders, Shelton, Shupe, Syllin, Swann, Sutton, Thompson, Waite, Watts, Wilcox, Will, Thompson and Waldo—55. (Democrats in italics).

For Slater—Abshire, I. Bilyeu, W. R. Blyeu, Burton, Cauborn, Coleman, Cox, Dick, Harris, Hoyt, Keykendall, Lockett, Myers, Nelson, Pennington, Prim, Rinshart, Taylor, Veach and Weatherford—20.

For Williams—Bourne, T. W. Davenport, Emmitt, Hare, Henkle, Manning, Riddle, Smith, Story, Therkel-son, Voorhees, Woodard and Keady—13.

Absent—Dorris.

It will be seen by the above that 17 Democrats voted with 38 Republicans to secure this result. They were permitted in this course by the Democratic caucus of the night before.

The Oregonian charges that there is a bargain between Mitchell and the Democrats whereby in consideration of Democratic votes Mr. Mitchell is to vote to confirm President Cleveland's nominations.

Mr. Mitchell in a speech after the election said that he was a Republican and would be such in the United States Senate, that he would make no factious opposition to the President but would oppose him if he attempted to infringe on the Tenure of Office Act. This, if we understand right, is the expressed opinion of the whole body of Republican Senators. But a difference of opinion as to the interpretation of that Act may arise between the Republican Senators and it would prove interesting to the people if the new Senator were to tell in his own language what that Act provides.

He also said that he would labor for the best interest of the people. As Congress meets in a couple of weeks it is useless to speculate on his course as we shall soon know.

During the exile in this country of John Mitchell, the Irish patriot, he was asked by a lady whether he had seen Niagara Falls from the Canada side. His reply was: "No, madame; respect for me neck restrains me curiosity. I like the water on this side" to the game's taste, and I don't propose to improve upon it by going to the other." In traveling south, Mitchell met Parson Brownlee, the spiritualist and hard nut of the profession, and being asked how he liked the noted man, answered, in his rich brogue: "It forcibly occurred to me toinid while he was speaking to me that he was a sort of rivenred haste."

The President has received an elegantly framed photograph of Prince Bismark, a present from the Prince himself and bearing his personal autograph. It will be hung in the President's chamber. It represents the Prince in his military uniform. It is probable that the President will return the compliment, and send back one of his photographs similarly framed.

The Oregonian has given the "Southern Confederacy and the two European cities" a rest during the past ten days. It has been busy attending to matters in its own household. The Democrats who read the Oregonian declare that they are lonely since the Alibody shirt cry ceased.

The Republicans who believe the war is over, who believe in peace and harmony between all sections of the country, who hate discord and despise demagogues, did not vote the Republican ticket in New York and Virginia. They stood in with the party that is pledged to peace and harmony.

The Democrats came within 6,000 votes of carrying Iowa, a State which gave a majority of 25,000 for the republican candidate two years ago, and 60,000 four years ago.

The Comstock mines are not played out even yet. The pay roll of these mines for the month of October foot up $17,226.

About four hundred sailing vessels are employed in carrying wheat around the world from the Pacific coast.

The following figures concerning the great Eastern and the Ark are of interest. Somebody is comparing the Great Eastern and Noah's Ark. The cost of building and launching the Great Eastern was $3,650,000, and this broke the original company. A new company was formed which spent $600,000 in fitting and furnishing her. Then this company failed, and a new company was organized with a capital of $500,000. At the close of 1880 this company sank £96,715, upon the vessel, thus making her total cost $4,703,575. Nothing ever built can stand comparison with the Great Eastern, excepting Noah's Ark, and even this vessel could not match her. The length of the ark was 300 cubits, her breadth 50 cubits and her height 30 cubits. The cubit of the Scriptures, according to Bishop Wilkins, was 21.65 inches, and compute into English measurement, the Ark was 547 feet long, 91 ft. beam, 51.7 depth, and 21,672 tons. The Great Eastern is 680 ft. long, 83 ft. beam, 56 ft. depth, and 28,053 tons measurement. So Noah's Ark is quite overshadowed by the Great Eastern.—Scientific American.

Cincinnati, not many years ago, was the porkopolis of the world. But she has completely lost her old supremacy in the pork packing business. Of eight cities in the United States which engage largely in this business, Cincinnati stands at the bottom of the list. Chicago, it is needless to say, is at the top. Cleveland and Indianapolis are ahead of Cincinnati, while Cedar Rapids, Iowa, packs three and a half times as many hogs as the once famous city of pork.

The Dispatch of to-day publishes a letter from Brunswick county, in which is given an account of a striking "southern outrage." A colored man, who had dared to vote the Democratic ticket, was waylaid, on his return home, and badly beaten by five Republicans of his own race. An officer of the law succeeded in arresting three of these thugs, and they admitted, it is said, that they had thus brutally assaulted their victim because he had voted with the Democrats.—Richmond, Va., State. Will John Sherman ask for a committee to investigate this southern outrage? It makes a great deal of difference, however, whose ox is gored. Sherman looks out for the Republican bovine.

The vote of the Soldiers' Home, in Bath, where Ira Dayenport lives, and in an institution which was endowed by his father, gave Governor Hill eighty-three majority. John Sherman and his clan, who fought the war, at home, certainly should feel "encouraged" at this "endorsement" of the "bloody shirt."

A dirty old picture has been discovered in a Rochester junk shop and experts are trying to decide whether or not it was painted by Reubens. If it was, that fact will add several thousand dollars to its value. Intrinsic merit seems to have nothing to do with the case.

De Lesseps has applied to the French Government for permission to issue new Panama canal bonds to the amount of $120,000,000 to defray what he describes as needed expenses in excess of the original estimates for the completion of the isthmus water way.

It is reported that Mahone is so crushed that he is talking about leaving Virginia. When he emigrates it is to be hoped that he will not stop short of Alaska, though the majority of Virginians no doubt prefer that he should go to a much warmer place.

A Boston man was taken ill while away from home. When asked if he wanted anything, he said: "Oh, give me anything made of beans." So the attending physician gave him castor oil.

Mr. Conking, having retired from politics, appears to want the Republican party to do likewise. His able assistance to this end may eventually be counted on at all seasons and on every occasion.

About 100,000 persons have died of cholera in the south of Europe this year, and this dreadful harvest was largely gleaned in France and Spain.

The city of East Portland is $21,573. Of course, it about the limit allowed by the city charter.

A Pretty Woman's Secret. Fear of discovery, when she resorts to false hair and dyes, is a source of constant anxiety to her. The very persons from whom the most desires to hide the want of her charms are the ones most likely to make the discovery. But there is no reason why she should not retain and retain all the beauty of hair that was her pride in youth. Let her use AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and not only will her hair cease to fall out, but a new growth will appear where the scalp has been denuded; and locks that are turning gray, or have actually grown white, will return to their pristine freshness and brilliance of color. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR cures Hereditary Baldness. GEORGE MAYER, Flatonia, Texas, was bald at 23 years of age, as his ancestors had been for several generations. One bottle of HAIR VIGOR started a growth of soft, downy hair all over his scalp, which soon became thick, long, and vigorous.
