Oregon Kidney Cure.

Holiday goods at the post-ffice.

Oregon Kidney Tea cures all kidney trouble. The turkeys and chickens suffered last Thursday.

For good cherry trees inquire at McClung &

If you want to buy goods cheap, give the IX L Store a call.

Oregon Kidney Tea is the best known remdy for kidney troubles.

If you want Holiday goods give the post office book store a call.

The GUARD does all kinds of job printing heaper than Portland prices. Go to Page's and get bargains in the bank rapt stock of Osburn & Belshaw.

The adjourned term of the Circuit Court convenes in this city December 16th. 1,500 Chinamen are working on the extension of the C & O railroad in California. Give the Brownsville Woolen Mills store call if you are in want of clothing, etc.

If you want a good plate of oysters, Ed Baum's is the place where you can get it.

The city flag was placed at half mast on r ceipt of the news of Vice President Hendricks'

See Dr Pilkington's advertisement in another column. He will be in Eugene on December 3d and 4th.

At a meeting last Thursday evening the members of the Knight of Pythias Lodge of

The best eating place in the city is at Ed. Baum's. Oysters, ham and eggs, tea and coffee,

A rush of advertisements compels us to leave out considerable interesting reading matter this week. The Legislature having adjourned last Tuesday the Lane county members arrived here last Wednesday.

Remember that Page is selling the bankrupt stock of groceries of Osburn & Belshaw at prices astonishingly low.

Mr Geo F Craw has just received an invoice of the famous Green Seal Cigars. That brand is one of the best "bit" cigars in the market.

See the new Holiday advertisement of Crain Bros in another column. Santa Claus has opened his headquarters at that place.

The work of blasting on Beecher rock on the Siuslaw wagon road has been completed. Work is now progressing rapidly on the

Miss Binnie de Forest, the elocutionist, will give an entertainment at Rhinehart's Paciors mediate vicinity. During the stay here he has tuned 68 instruments.

The man Holliway arrested here by a constable from Port and for horse stealing plead guilty and was sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Mr J L Page has purchased the bankrupt stock, formerly belonging to Osburn & Belshaw and will sell the same at prices "way down. Give him a call and price the goods.

Mr S H Friendly has just received from consider A I hops. Interested parties can see them by calling at Mr Friendly's store. Mr. L. Loretz hereby gives notice that he Hare, 36-Amending section 701, chapter 8, title 3, of the civil code. is prepared to fix up lawns and yards in the best of style. He calls attention to the yard of Mr. Chas. Lauer as a fair sample of his work. One of the largest stocks of boots and shoes ever brought to Eugene has just arrived at Matlocks'. They were bought direct from the Coleman, 11—Amending laws governing the One o the largest stocks of boots and shoes manufacturers in the East and will be sold on very reasonable terms. While our Legislature found time to act upon a bill to stop prize-fighting, why did it not pass a law refusing to license quacks? Prize-fighters but bruise; quacks both rob and kill'-Sunday Welcome. At Matlock's a very fine line of ladies shoes of the celebrated H D Holbrook make, direct from the Eastern manufacturer. The ladies of Lane county would do well to call at Mr Matlock's store and examine these goods.

Having had four years experience in dressmaking in one of the first houses of Portland, I would be pleased to receive a share of patronage from the ladies of Eugene. Residence, first house north of railroad on Mill street.

We take pleasure in recommending Hall's Common Hair Renewer to our readers. It restores gray hair to its youthful color, prevents haldness, makes the hair soft and glossy, does not stain the skin, and and is the best known remedy for hair and scalp diseases.

F. C. ADAIR.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla thoroughly cleanses the blood, stimulates the vital functions, and restores health and strength. No one whose blood is impure can feel well. When you are discouraged and despendent take Ayer's Sarsa-parilla to purify and vitalize the blood.

A darkey talking with a friend on the subject of answered prayers, was asked if the Almighty always answered his prayers. He rephet that it depended extrely on how he worled his petition. He said; "If I ask the Lord to send me a turkey I won't get it, but if I ask him to send me after a turkey I always get one before daybreak."

William Hoffman, an early settler and one of the most respected citizens of Rogue river valley, died at his home in Jacksonville, Nov. 14, in the 85th year of his age. For many months he had been failing, and last summer was very low, but recovered and regained considerable strength, only to yield again within a few months to the inevitable failure of hise's fewerest the and of the "allotted again." Mr few months to the inevitable failure of life's forces at the end of the "allotted span," Mr Hoffman came to Southern Oregon from Indiana in 1852, and was soon honored by his fellow citizens with an election to the office of county clerk, which position he had held with credit in his county in Indiana. So well did he conduct the affairs of the office that he was elected again and again for six consecutive terms. Deceased has left to mourn his loss a wife and six children—Mrs C C Beskman, Mrs D Linn. Mrs George B Dorris, Mrs Vining, Mrs J C Whipp and Miss Kate Hoffman—ail tof whom were present at his bedside to receive r of whom were present at his bedside to receive his last fareweil. The funeral, says the Ashland Tidings, was one of the most largely attended ever known in the valley.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH. - Bishop B. Wistar Morris will preach in St Mary's Eracoral Bishop Morris is an elequent divine, and is lawyer. A word to the wise is sufficient.

NACATION.—The State University and public our city and address the people. Whenever rehood gave yacation from Wednesday after he comes he may be sure of an audience as our moted for excellent sermous.

New Laws

The Aregon Legislature adjourned last Tuesday at 10 P. M The following laws were passed during the session :

HOUSE BILLS PASSED.

Prosser, No 10-To facilitate transportation of freight by railroads. Story, 68-Providing for lighting public

Leinenweber, 9 - Amending charter Veatch, 13 - Amending section 27, title 11, buildings with electric light.

chapter 8, miscellaneous laws, relating to boundaries of counties, Story, 14 To preserve order at watering aces of public resort. Henkie, 47 - Amending charter of Philomath. Morrow, 7—Changing name of Aikali to Lowis, 41-Creating Seventh Judicial district, and providing time of holding court in that and the Sixth Judicial district.

Cols, 42-Amending act relating to fees sheriff of Columbia county. Bourne, 63 Providing for uniform system of books and certificates for registration of votes. Cox, 76-Incorporating Milton. Bilyeu, 93-te amend section 6, title 5, Civil Chandler, 89-Establish evidence of certain ecords destroyed by fire in Baker county. Kendy, 37-To prevent sale of liquor without

Miller, 72-To amend section 6, charter of Leinenweber, 62-To provide that the presi dent of the Board of Pilot Commissioners recorded as managing owner new pilot Porter, 13-Appropriating $10,000 for bridge over Rogne river.

Jolly, 24—Increasing the salary of the Treasurer of Grant county from $400 to $500.

Bourne, 4—Providing for a bridge over the Willamette river at Portland.

Geer, 59—To suppress prize fighting.

Rid le, 20—I hat a board benuiled below the top wire of wire fences west of the Cascade Mountains.

Bilyeu, 90—Amending section 6, an act to empower the Governor, Secretary of State and Treasurer to compute the State levy of taxes in the several countries.

in the several counties.

Gilbert, 28-Relating to compensation of clerks of school districts.

Hays, 71-To protect Mongolian pheasants.

Brown, 87—Amending act amending the Absheir, 19-Annexing a portion of Grant to Lake county. Lake county. Veatch, 91-To amend section 86, chapter 5, Civil Code. Geer, 25-Protecting fish in fish ways.

Cox, 32—Providing for assessment and col-lection of taxes upon rolling stock of railroads, and repealing section 13, title 2 of chapter 57, of Miscellaneous Laws.

SENATE BULLS PASSED. Simon, No 22-Amending registry laws. Rinehart, 32 -Incorporating the town of Carson, 34-Amending Portland charter. Prim, 43-Amending Ashland charter. Siglin, 50 -Permitting women to practice law in the courts of Oregon with the same

Carson, 60-Creating a Board of Commis examine into matters of assessment 62-Amending section 13, appre oriation bill. Burch, 30-Regulating passage of traction ngines, bicycles, etc. Burch, 51—Re<sub>s</sub>ulating sale of spiritu

Monday evening, under the auspicies of the Baptist Church,

Mr J P Thomson, the piano tuner, says

Si manos in Eugene and im-

Coleman, 10-Requiring receivers of rail roads to repair bridges.
Miller, 37—Amending section 571, crimina

Siglin, 25-To construct dyke across Isthmus lough. Reed, 27—Incoporates town of Ranier. Lee, 23—Appropriating $250 toward monu-ment to J W Nesmith.

Bilyeu, 29-Amending school laws. Siglin, 40—To provide against the indiscrim-inate sale of opium and the smoking of the Simon, 15 - Fixing fees of justices and constables of Multnomah county. Haines, 63-Supplying burned records

Weatherford, 61-Amending the act incor porating Brownsville.

Miller, 55-Amending section 49 of act providing for registration of voters, and repealing title I, chapter 14, miscellaneous laws. Simon, 44—Amending section 143, title 15, chapter 1, civil code.

Cauthorn 19—Confirming location of Agri-

Oregonian R. R. Simon, 55—Amending Registry Law

Simon, 65-Amending charter of Portland by creating a police Commission.

Post-Mortem Examination.

Last Tuesday morning in Eugene City, Doctors Jones, Harris and Shelton conducted placed in the hands of GEO. W. KINSEY for an examination on the body of George S, Kinan examination of the body of coolers and caid, revealing the following conditions of the internal organs: Lung, on right side, almost completely collapsed, not reaching lower than the third intercostal space. Left Lung, tissue normal, small pleuritio effusion, chronic pleuritic adhesions. Heart, large effusion in pericardical sac, slight hyperthropy, with fatty degeneration. Liver, greatly enlarged, crowding the lung on right side as high as the thir intercostal space. Stomacn, walls abnormally thin, chronic congestion with veinous engorge-ment. Spleen, completely broken down. Kidabnormal condition Common fliac vein, completely obstructed by the impaction of a fibrinous clot on the left

L. F. Jones, T. W. Harris, T. W. Shelton,

Goth Found in Bouss & - At the Star He tel. Mr J B Coleman has purchased the property and gone in as proprietor. He is the first man who has come out publicly in favor of the poor man, or the one who has to board and lodge. He will furnish good board and ledging for 83.75 per week or 75 cents per day. He has refitted the house, putting in new bets and plenty of cover. He has also fitted to p his barn in good style and will feed any man's barn in good style and will feed any man's barn on has and cate for 25 cents. Stable horse on hay and oats for 25 cents. Stable without feed free to patrons of the hotel. Mr C is a lame man but gets around lively and respectfully societs a share of public patronage. No Chinese employed—white help only. Call and see the old Kentuckian; he will make started a fish market in this city on Ninth the Northern Pacific. The first experiment ter except the constitutional provision found Street, opposite Day & Pratt's blacksmith was highly successful in every way, and the shop. He will keep constantly on hand all cargo of tea was disposed at without any lows: kinds of fish, oysters, clams, poultry and trouble. game, etc. The people should give the gentle-man a good support.

To Let.-To two gentlemen or ladies; a comfortably furnished room, with fire, lights, etc. Terms, 86 per month for the two. Apply to Rev O Parker, at the Episcopal Rectory.

Notice to Chaptrons -All those indebted to me for blacksmithing or otherwise are requested to call and settle same, as I must from business and being desirous of settling have money immediately.

J. N. BOYD. Janction City, Or., Nov. 14, 1885.

L. SALOMON TALKS.-He says that all those indebted to him must come forward Brevities.

Christmas next. Grass growing nicely.

Farmers busy plowing. Correspondence solicted from all portions of from Monday. Mr M S Wallis writes that he will spend the holidays in Eugene.

See dissolution notice of Driskill & Day, blacksmiths, in another column. Mr C W Nelson has been confined to hi oom with airkness this work

A Portland drummer was quite ill at the St Charles Hotel several days this week. The Thanksgiving ball was postponed on ount of the death of Mr Geo S Kincaid, We are pleased to state that the health of ex Congressman Henderson is improving.

time for Colfax, W T, where he will make his Mrs T M Jackson has recovered from herre-

Mr Robt M Callison will leave in a short cent illness and has resumed her position in the public school. Last Tuesday the President appointed B Coffey, of Salem, Indian Agent at the Umatilla agency. We might mention for the benefit of a few same as ever. Selah!

It is rumored that the steamer City of Salem will soon make trips to Eugene for the pur. The Lakin damage cases before the Benton county Circuit Court will not be tried until the Hon C W Roby, the newly appointed postmaster at Portland last Tuesday, was admitted to practice law in Oregon. The Guild of St Mary's Episcopal Church will meet at Mrs J B Underwood's on Wednesday, Dec 2d, at 2 o'clock p. m. The President has appointed Henry A Rinehart Receiver and J T Outhouse Register of the U S Laud Office at La Grande. The AOUW and the Firemen's flags were half-masted last Monday and Tuesday in respect to the memory of the late Geo. S. Kin-

The Directors of the Lane County Agricultural Society will meet in this city Saturday, December 5th. A full attendance of the members is requested.

A family from Iowa arrived in this city last Monday via the afternoon train and before dark of that day they had rented a dwelling, bought furniture, and moved therein, cooking their own supper.

A Washington Territory paper wonders why it is that the "spuds" at the top of the sack: 00000000000000 and this kind in the bottom

Dave Lytle, of this county, arrived in Prineville last week. He went via the Mc Kenzie route, and reports about 15 miles of snow on the mountains, averaging from one to two feet deep.

The following marriage licenses have been issued out of the County Clerk's office since our last issue : J F Henderson and Mattie Tull ; McElvy Wooton and L M Conrod; J E Noland and Clara M Stansbery.

It is reported on the best authority that Mi wide on each side of the line of the O & C rail Grover B. Simpson, formerly of this city, now road to said company to aid in building their of Spokane, will be married on the 26th inst. to Miss Alma Beezly, daughter of Mr Joseph disposed of by the Government to settlers upon Beezly, of The Dalles; the wedding to take | the odd numbered sections within the grant of place at the residence of the bride's parents.—

Our weather prophets are predicting a severe winter, but some persons who don't beyond the twenty mile limit of the grant. pretend to be over wise in such matters, have suggested the opinion that we never have a hard winter when the rains set in early. Here is a difference of opinion, so our readers can take their choice and govern themselves accordingly.

Important Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the accounts of the late firm of Osburn & Belshaw have been

Those indebted to the firm are hereby notified not to pay money to anyone else, as Mr Kinsey is alone authorized to make collections. GEORGE BELSHAW, ADVERTISED.-It will be remembered that a little over a year ago a so-called " Prof " B Febneman, was the proprietor of a dancing school. Since that time he has been teaching his "profession" in California. Last Monday we received a copy of the Ferndale, Cal., Enterprise, that devoted a couple of columns to the said Fehneman. It appears that he beat that paper out of something like $30. And in other places in that neighborhood he has defrauded creditors out of several hundred dollars. That paper also makes other charges of a damaging nature. The editor cods his article as follows; "We distinctly disclaim any malice toward the Professor, and this publication is made for the sole purpose of protecting this community from the evil practices of a wolf in SECOND TEA SHIP. - The British bark Arti an, which left Yokohama, Japan, on the 13th of October, with a cargo of 2,000 tons of tea and silks and a small assortment of other artiyou so welcome you will think you are at cles has arrived at Tacoma. The Artisan is the Presidency. the second vessel which brings tea by the new FIRM MARKET. -Mr J P Ditchburn has just route from Japan to the eastern markets via nitely. There is no law governing the mat-

> Passen.-On the last day of the Legislature that body passed S J M No 9, introduced by Senator Coleman asking Congress to improve the mouth of the Siuslaw river by construction of jettles, etc. an appropriation of $200,000 is asked for. (The memorial in full was put-lished in last week's GUARD).

Nortez.-Mr. B. H. James having retired up, requests all those indebted by note or account to immediately call and make a settle

It is with unusual feelings of regret that we are called upon to chronicle the death of Mr Geo S Kincald which occurred in this city Monday about noon, after an ilness of over five weeks. He was born in Lane county, Oregon, March 4, 1885 and was therefore at the time of his death 27 years, 8 months and 19 days old. He has been a resident of this county al his life. An an early age he entered the State Journal office and soon became a thorough printer. He was publisher of that paper from 1878 until 1882, when he was associated in the ame business with Mr H R Kincaid, his brother. A few months ago he retired from the paper. He was married in 1876 to Miss cemetery last Wednesday afternoon by the Eugene Ledge of A. O. U. W., of which order he was a worthy brother. The firemen also attended the funeral in uniform, in bonor of deceased, who was an exempt member, and the Eugene band furnished suitable music for the occasion. Rev C M Hill conducted the tuneral services in a very impressive manner. For seven years our relations with the deceased had been quite intimate although rivals in the field of business, and we ever found him social, generous and upright, a true and steadfast friend, and as such he won and retained

The remains were buried in the Masonic

Laura Watkins, who survives him.

the lasting esteem of those who knew him longest and best. For many years he will be held in kind remembrance by a great number of that the public school is running along the friends. Our sympathy goes out to those left desolate, to the sorrow stricken widow, to the heart broken mother and the grieving brother

Cottage Grove Items.

[FROMOUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

COTTAGE GROVE, Nov. 25. Sunday afternoon was another windy one Miss Mary McCarty left for Salem Tuesday. We acknowledge the compliments of "Rec-

Mr Charlie Russel, of Sinslaw, was in town

A daughter of Mr H Chance arrived here ew days ago,

Coyote are playing havor with the sheep in Lynx Hollow of late. Mr Joseph Sharp is to preach the Thanks

Mr Mat Foley, of Siuslaw, passed here on his way to Eugene last Friday; he returned Mr George W Johnson returned from Jackson county a few days ago, where he been for several months past. A couple of sons of Mr John Porter came in east of the mountains last Friday and report the snow two feet deep on the mountain. A team of Mr Willard Martin got serred at a gun being discharged and broke loose and ran from here to Latham one day last week. The ngue of the buckboard was broken, being all the damage done. Weather very unsettled since our last, I hursday was a fair day, Friday came in with rain which lasted until Saturday night, Sunday cleared off and it was windy and cool in the afternoon. Monday morning came in with quite a frost and some ice. Tuesday it moderated, and has been raining off and on until the present time, 9:45 a. m.

US Land Office.

Roseburg, Or., Nov 12, 1885. As there appears to be a misunderstanding in the minds of many concerning the lands af feeted by Commissioner Sparks' late rolling. will be more explicit. The act of July 25, 1886, granted a strip of land twenty miles road; and to indemnify said company for lands twenty miles each side their line of road; the same act provided that the company might se lect every odd numbered section for ten miles This is called the "indemnity limit" which by order of former Commissioners was withdrawn from settlement. The present Commissioner rules that the odd numbered sections within this "indemnity limits" until they settle them by filing in the local land office a list of such lands are subject to settlement under the preemption and homestead laws. This ruling ap plies to the entire length of of the line of road. In other words all government lands more than twenty miles from either side of the line of the O & C R R are now subject to settlement under the above laws.
W. F. BENJAMIN, Register.

Programme.

The following is the programme to be ren dered by Prof. Coolidge's class, at his rooms, to-day. These piano recitations are to take lace monthly. In addition to the music the rofessor will read a short biography of each of the composers in the programme:

Diabelli—Duet, Senata, Allegn, Andante, Allegretta. Prof C and Miss Dorris, I Lange—Solo, "Pure as Snow." Miss Holt.
Behr—Solo, "Turtle Dove Polka." Miss Le Duc-Solo, La Chatelaina, Miss Hendricks.

Favarger—Solo, Simplette, Misa Coburn.
Mozart—Duet, "5th Symphony." Prof and Mrs Coolidge.
Lichner—Solo, Mignorette. Benetta Dorris.
Lange—Solo, "Flower Song." Miss Smith.
Smith, Sydney—Solo, "Mountain Stream."
Miss Midgley.
Leybach—Solo, "5th Nocturue." Miss Underwood.
Swith Boyton—Solo, "Mill Wheel." Miss Smith, Boyton-Solo, "Mill Wheel," Miss

A Question.

Kinsey.

Eccens, November 27, 1885. EDITOR GUARD:-In case of the death of the President and Vice President of the United States what person would succeed to

The question cannot be answered defiin Article 2, Section I, which reads as fol-

"In case of the removal of the president from office, or of his death, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of said of-fice, the same shall devolve on the Vice President and Congress may by law provide for the case of removal, death, resignation, or inability, both of the l'resident and Vice President, declaring what officer shall then act as President, and such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed or a President shall be elected."

ARCHBISHOP GROSS.—Rhinehart's hall was filled to overflowing Sunday morning and evening to hear two addresses by this eloquent diment. He can be found at his office in the vine. The lectures were filled with thought, Court House, ready to reocipt for all debts finely expressed and eloquatly delivered. Bishop Gross says he may return frequently to Personal.

Mr Ira Walton was in town one day this Mr James H Evans of Lakeview spent Sunday in town visiting relatives. Mr L Harding, of Marion county, is visiting relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs M.J Odell has returned from Albany. She is now again able to hear her musi

Mr. Smith, principal of the Junction City public school, visited Eugene a couple o days this week. We acknowledge a call.

Representatives Beall, of Jackson county, and Lyle, of Wasco and Crook, spent last Thursday in our city, visiting friends and

Mr T C Judkins left Eugene last Wedneslay morning for Washington, D C, where he goes as a special correspondent for the Oregonian and other papers. Cy is a good writer and in time will make his mark in his chosen pro-

Mrs. C. A. Coburn, editor of the Portland Evening Telegram, gave this office a pleasant call last Thursday morning. She came up to our city to spend Thanksgiving with her daughter, who is attending the University. Mrs. Coburn is a writer of considerable merit, and is a sister of Mr. H. W. Scott, editor of the Oregonian, and Mrs. Dunniway, editor of the New Northwest.

MARRIED, -Last Tuesday morning several uspicious persons noticed that Mr James Noland, Lane county's popular surveyor, and Miss Clara Stansbery, one of the most popula? young ladies in Eugene, were passengers on the north bound train. It was found out Wednesday that the parties had been joined in lawful wedlock the same evening of their arrival in Portland, and the next morning had started for Astoria. Sneed Wallis acted as chief mourner on the occasion. We congratulate James and his, and may their journey down life's pathway be as pleasant as it is to-day.

HALL BURNED. - The Odd Fellows Hall two niles below Coburg burned to the ground about midnight last Saturday. A regular session of the Odd Fellows lodge had been held that evening and had adjourned about 10 o'clock The fire was undoubtedly due to a defective flue as it was first noticed in the roof around the same. The loss on building and lodge fixwas insured for $800° and the pharaphernalia

ANOTHER SALOON. - And still another saloon is to be started up in Eugene in the building Church in this city last Thursday morning, north of Dunn's store on Willammette street The sermon delivered by Rev A C Fairchild. by one Adolph from Roseburg. This will was of a high order and showed much make eight saloons and two breweries in our Crow Items.

Nov 17, 1886. To-day at one o'clock this section of country was visited by a wind storm of great violence It uprooted trees, blowed down fences and turned things upside down generally. It blew down one of my largest apple trees. One gust struck my flock of sheep and rolled some of them over but did not cripple any of them. The wind was from the southwest and during the storm it was very near clear.

I understand that Mr Medley of Cottage Grove has rented the Dave Coleman farm here on Coyote creek and will move to the same is a short time.

Coyotes are making it lively for the sheep in this quarter. They have killed 15 for Jim Crow, four for me and 6 or 7 for Insley Coleman and quite a number for George Oxment,

Jim Crow is preparing for a trip to the Rogue river country to see his brother and prospect for a quartz mine near the old Yank ledge as new mines in that section are being discovered every day. M. Nionewastona Card of Thanks.

We, the wife, mother and brother of Got S. Kincaid, desire in this public manner to tender our sincere thanks to each and every person who in any way sided, comforted or assisted him during his sickness and suffering, especially during his last confinement of five weeks to his room, which terminated on the 23d in-t.; also to those who attended the funeral on the following day, the Eugene Lodge of the A. O. U. W., the Eugene Firemen—the Engine Company and the Hook and Ladder Company—the Eugene Brass Band, the Knights of Pythias, and the other kind friends who testified their respect and esteem for our Pythias, and the other kind friends who testified their respect and esteem for our dearly beloved when the remains were placed in their final resting place. With profound gratitude we thank your all and will ever bear your kindness in grateful remembrance.

LAURA A. KINGAID,

NANOT KISCAID RIDDEL,

HARRISON R. KINGAID, Eugene City, Oregon, Nev. 26, 1885.

HOLIDAY GOODS. - Postmaster Patterion has just received a select stock of books, cards, dairy, toy and fancy books especially designed for the Holiday trade, direct from the publishers. He has a very fine assortment of articles suitable for presents. He says that the stock of goods ordered for the Holiday trade must be disposed of by January 1, 1886, regardless of prices. Give him a call immediately and select your tures amounts to about $1800. The building presents and examine the goods, Prices

THANKSOIVING SERVICES, -Union Thanksgiving services were held at the Baptist preparation. The music by the choir was a high standard of excellence.

Again at the Front.

Are opening the largest and finest

stock of HOLIDAY GOODS

ever brought to Eugene. Beautiful Plush Goods in almost endless variety. Albums, new styles, in plush, $2.50 and upwards.

In Silverware our stock is just immense. Our show cases are filled with the finest GOLD GOODS: Gold watches, chains, broaches, gold setts, Diamond rings, solid gold rings, rolled gold goods, pins, ear rings, bracelets, cuff buttons, Etc., Etc. On our shelves are vases, toilet setts, cups and saucers, figures, &c. in great variety and new designs.

WE ALSO HAVE: Dolls, doll cabs, childrens' dishes, tool chests and toys without number.

Also music goods, art goods, pictures, picture frames, purses, and in fact, everything you want. Call and examine, as we cannot enumerate our Stock.

work and hand baskets, satchels, hand purses, pocket

Come And See.

Bankrupt Sale.

Having purchased the Bankrupt Stock of GROCERIES, ETC. at prices VERY LOW, formerly belonging to

Osburn & Belshaw,

I now offer them for sale at

Way Down' Prices.

Give me a call and price the Goods.

J. L. PAGE.