

Buckshot Figures.

At one of the towns in Mississippi where we stayed over Sunday a couple of strangers got into a row about the age of the earth. They were sons of planters and neither of them over 22 years of age. The dispute started in a good-natured way, but ended in one of them springing up, pulling out a bowie knife and threatening to carve the other, if his word was disputed again. The other was defenseless and wisely held his peace. The man with the knife sat down, and conversation turned to other channels. By and by the defenseless man got up and lounged away, and next we saw of him, half an hour later, he was resting the muzzle of a double barreled shot gun against one of the porch pillars of the hotel, and had us all covered. The hammers were up, the fingers on the triggers and his eyes blazed like a tiger's as he said to the man with the knife: "Jim, it's my turn now."

"Y a"
"I've got you covered!"
"I see."
I said the earth was a million years old, you stuck to 6,000 years. Come up to my figures, or I'll blow the top of your head over the fence!"
"Say," replied the other, as he crossed his legs in the coolest manner. "I'll tell you what I'm willing to do. As both of us might be wrong, I'll leave it to the crowd."

"We consulted together, menaced all the time by two charges of buckshot and the Colonel was authorized to call out:
"We reckon on about 700,000 years, stranger, but shouldn't be surprised if it went went up to a million."
"Nor I, either!" said the man as he lowered the gun and leaned on the barrel. "I don't say as I fit in the war, or that I was born up Fighting Creek, but when it comes down to the age of the earth I'm to home and the lath string is out! Come and see me!"—

"You are charged with kissing this young lady in the dark, said the judge to the prisoner, a good-looking young man.
"Merciful heavens," he gasped. Is that the young lady?"
"It is."
"Then I plead not guilty, your honor."
"Not guilty?"
"Yes, and I desire to enter a plea of insanity.—New York Journal.

Cure For Piles.
Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulence, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, bleeding and itching piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address the Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Florida, Ohio. Sold by Osburn & Co. and W. S. Lee, of Junction.

During last April or May there was a certain calf missing from our neighborhood, and as Mr. E. J. Moffitt, formerly a resident here, but now a resident of Wasco county, had driven a drove of cattle out of our neighborhood, I thought the calf in question had strayed amongst his cattle and had been driven away by Mr. Moffitt. Since that time the calf has been found, and I am satisfied I was mistaken. I now desire to exonerate Mr. Moffitt, as time has proven to me that he is innocent of any charge brought by me against him.

A Safeguard.

The fatal rapidity with which slight Colds and Coughs frequently develop into the gravest maladies of the throat and lungs, is a consideration which should impel every prudent person to keep at hand, as a household remedy, a bottle of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Nothing else gives such immediate relief and works so sure a cure in all affections of this class. That eminent physician, Prof. F. Sweetser, of the Maine Medical School, Brunswick, Me., says:—
"Medical science has produced no other remedy so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is invaluable for diseases of the throat and lungs."
The same opinion is expressed by the well-known Dr. L. J. Addison, of Chicago, Ill., who says:—
"I have never found, in thirty-five years of continuous study and practice of medicine, any preparation so great as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, for treatment of diseases of the throat and lungs. It not only breaks up colds and cures severe coughs, but is more effective than anything else in relieving even the most serious bronchial and pulmonary affections."

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral
Is not a new claimant for popular confidence, but a medicine which is to-day saving the lives of the third generation who have come into being since it was first offered to the public.
There is not a household in which this invaluable remedy has once been introduced where its use has ever been abandoned, and there is not a person who has ever given it a proper trial for any throat or lung disease susceptible of cure, who has not been made well by it.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has, in numerous instances, cured obstinate cases of chronic Bronchitis, Laryngitis, and even acute Pneumonia, and has saved many patients in the earlier stages of Pulmonary Consumption. It is a medicine that only requires to be taken in small doses, is pleasant to the taste, and is needed in every house where there are children, as there is nothing so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL for treatment of Croup and Whooping Cough.
These are all plain facts, which can be verified by anybody, and should be remembered by everybody.
