atre, Dec 11th. Rishop Morris delivered a very learned sermon at St Mary's Episcopal Church last Monday evening. Marion Davis, at one time a student in the University, is a candidate for City Recorder of Union City, Oregon. Billy Dugan in his Kate Kastleton with local hits will make you all laught at Rhine hart's Theatre, Dec 11th. Remember that Page is selling the bankrupt stock of groceries of Osburn & Belshaw at prices astonishingly low.

The elecutionary entertainment at Rhine hart's Hall was poorly attended. Lack of advertising was the cause.

James Sterling, formerly of Cottage Grove, was married Nov 14, 1885, to Mrs Elizabeth Seymour, of Marcellus, NY.

If you want to spend a pleasant evening attend the entertainment to be given by the

Eugene Dramatic Club to-night; Mr Geo F Craw has just received an invoice of the famous Green Seal Cigars. That brand is one of the best "bit" cigars in the market. See the new Hotiday advertisement of Crain Bros in another column. Santa Claus has opened his headquarters at that place. The largest stock of dolls, toys and Christ mas cards can be found at Ed Baum's. He eells them cheaper than any house in the city.

Every public spirited citizen should attend the entertainment to night as the money is to be applied to purchase instruments for the new band.

Ed Baum has just opened a fine line of smoker's articles-meerschaum goods and fine bigars -expressly made for Christmas presents. A cribbage board on the cigar box; something novel and neat.

If you want anything extra fine in the line Baum's. Such has never been in the city before.

We have received a copy of the Albany Daily Herald published by Train and Whithey. It is a neat and newsy sheet and deserving of a good support.

K Baum's holiday goods are of the very articles, albums, and many other fine goods Beats anything in the city.

Mr J L Page has purchased the bankrupt * stock, formerly belonging to Osburn & Belshaw and will sell the same at prices "way down." Give him a call and price the goods, Kelly and Hastings in the splinters and burlesque slugging or "Dempsey and Campbell," will bring down the house. Of corset it s good. Rhinehart's Theatre, December 11th.

Mr E J Crow informs us that he has lost another horse by the disease that has prevailed in the hills south of town. He thinks, however, that the disease has about run out, Mr S H'Friendly has just received from San Francisco some samples of what dealers consider A 1 hops. Interested parties can see them by calling at Mr Friendly's store. Mr. L. Loretz hereby gives notice that he is prepared to fix up lawns and yards in the best of style. He calls attention to the yard of Mr. Chas. Latter as a fair sample of his work.

One o the largest stocks of boots and shoes ever brought to Eugene has just arrived at Matlocks'. They were bought direct from the manufacturers in the East and will be sold on very reasonable terms.

How often do we hear of the fatal termina tion of a case of croup, when a young life might have been saved by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Keep a bottle of it on hand, ready for metant use.
