

WRESTLING WITH THE MAZY.

A Giddy Wyoming Youth Learns to Trip the Light Fantastic.

Very soon now I shall be strong enough on my cyclonic leg to resume my lessons in walking.

My wife taught me how to walk. She would teach me on Saturdays and repair her skirts during the following week.

I had just learned how to reel around a ball room to a little waltz music when I was blown across the state of Mississippi in September last by a high wind.

My wife taught me to Waltz.

a good deal, when she heard that my leg was broken, began to attend every dancing party she could hear of, although she had declined a great many previous to that.

I could walk more easily if the rules did not require such a constant change of position.
