

Commissioner Sparks.

This gentleman has a big job on his hands, and he seems equal to it. He is trying to reform the administration of the land laws, investigating past frauds, nullifying them as far as he can, and seeing that the acts and intents of Congress are carried out honestly. We have abiding faith in Mr. Sparks, and while there may be some delay, yet we believe that in the end, every man who has settled upon government will get a title thereto in good time, according to law. The customs of the land office during the past twenty years, the lax execution of the laws, and the appropriation of public lands in wholesale quantities by railroad companies, the barons of Europe and cattle syndicates, without the slightest vestige of equity, are to cease, and none too soon. A few years more and the party whose hypocritical cry has been for years past that the public domain is the property of the poor, would not have left them an acre. Contrast their mighty boasts and their miserable achievements, we can say that the change was necessary. On this subject the New York Times of December 23d says:

"The feeling against Land Commissioner Sparks and his rulings is said to be intense in Dakota, and the people are appealing to Senators and Representatives for help. Senator Sherman and Senator Logan have already assured them that their complaints will be considered in Commissioner Sparks' Commission was confirmed last Spring before the Senate adjourned. It is curious that, although the land question is one concerning which the people of Dakota feel deeply and are easily excited, no one has ever heard of an indignation meeting held in that region for the purpose of denouncing the thieves and perjurers who have fraudulently taken possession of so much land in the territory. That these thieves are there numerous is established by many official reports sent to Congress by Mr. Sparks' Republican predecessor who was of the opinion that about 75 per cent. of the entries in Dakota were fraudulent. What do the worthy settlers of Dakota think of these scoundrels? Why don't they assist the Government in driving the rascals out?"

The Oregonian issued from its office on last Friday a mammoth and superb edition which excelled by far the best in the newspaper line on the North Pacific Coast to this time. It consisted of twenty pages, and contained a complete and succinct account of the progress of the State for the past year, and many columns of statistics and interesting articles. It is just the paper for the intending immigrant. The newspaper field is ably filled in this state by the Oregonian, and the strong, enterprising men who manage it know that their efforts are appreciated, or they may, if they will look at their subscription books.

The S. F. Chronicle pillories Republican Representative Price of the Eighth Wisconsin district for voting against pensioning Mrs. Grant. The Chronicle is the great Republican newspaper of the Pacific coast and it says that Price is a Republican. The sheet here that intimated otherwise simply exhibited its usual ignorance and unusual ears.

Hon. Daniel Manning, Secretary of the Treasury has issued a call for $10,000,000. The Republican newspapers were mad because there were no bond calls, now they are furious a call has been made. It was to be expected of them as they have no principles on which to unite. But nobody let them object.

Have been opened by the Republican discovered. There $220,000 in Ben Butler Republican

Monday, will late ph.

Hugh O'Brien has been elected Mayor of Boston by a majority of 8,500. The associated press forgot to chronicle the election, as it was a Democratic victory, but somehow we never miss the report of an election in some "500" town with a small Republican majority. Jay Gould knows his friends.

The present City Council of Eugene is deserving of all praise from their constituents for the able manner in which the finances of Eugene have been managed. To-day, on a three mill tax, there is a surplus of over $2000 in the city treasury, and the usual improvements have been made.

If the Democratic members of the Ohio Legislature should combine with some of the Republican members and vote to keep John Sherman at home it would prove a national blessing. John is at least twenty years behind the times. He would prove a valuable relic for a museum, would this fossil fraud of the reign of the old fraud, Hayes.

Democrats should inform each other in the matter of the forthcoming registration. No person who is not registered according to the new registration law will be allowed to vote at the June election. With a full register of vote this county is assured to the party of reform and progress, which is the Democratic party.

Next Friday is St. Jackson's day, the 68th anniversary of the battle of New Orleans. The 8th of January is now widely celebrated, and the custom is rapidly extending among the Democrats of the east. It promotes party discipline, and is a righteous tribute to the memory of a great hero.

Hon. J. K. Weatherford is prominently mentioned as the Democratic candidate for Governor next June. Mr. Weatherford is a man of excellent ability and reputation, and no worthier candidate could be nominated. He would make a strong pull for the place.

The editorial in a certain paper on the silver question, shows a perspicuity that reminds us of the power asked by another witty sage, "If so be as how, how come it so." Which side do you champion?

Ex-President Tilden is reported in better health. It gives us pleasure to record the fact, and we only wish that the distinguished and venerated statesman may enter the twentieth century with renewed health.

We learn that the Republicans of Portland are in favor of nominating Hon. Sol. Hirsch for Governor. He is entitled to it by his faithful and many services to his party.

The World, Mr. A. Noltner's new paper has at last made its appearance. It is a new publication and will appear weekly. The subscription price is $2 50 per year in advance.

M. Grevy has been re-elected President of the French Republic. It would seem that Republican ideas are strongly entrenched in the minds and affections of the French people.

United Senator John H. Mitchell of Oregon and United States Senator John I. Mitchell, of Pennsylvania, are both natives of Tioga county, Pennsylvania.

The Oregonian now gives the Southern Confederacy a blessed rest. "White winged peace now broods over the land."

It is reported by telegraph that there is a likelihood of war between Austria and Russia.
