Suit for $10,000 Damages.

Last Monday Sheriff Campbell served on Mr. Samuel Meek the papers in a suit wherein James Luper sues him for $10,000 for defamation of character. The complaint alleges that on February 25, 1885, the next day after the burning of the Cooper warehouse at Irving, the defendant, Meek, with intent to injure plaintiff's reputation did maliciously and wrongfully utter an I publish concerning plaintiff in the presence of S L Bond and others these false and scandalons words, "Gentlemen I want it distinctly understood that I mean what I say, Jim Luper shipped the wheat and set fire to Also the following words in the warehouse." Also the following words in the presence of O P Ho.f: "Luper burned that warehouse." Thereupon the plaintiff is greatly injured in the good name and reputation, to his damage in the sum of $10,000 and costs. Attorneys Dorris and Washburne have been retained by the plaintiff, and Attorney Biven by the defendant. It is rumored that Luper will institute damage suits against several other parties shortly.

In driving this distance he contrived by wandering about to consume the entire night, and toward morning attempted to lure Neal into the bushes with the supposed intention of robbing him and attempted to shoot him-with a breech loading shot gun, which he had taken along under the pretense of shooting game. Failing in this he awaited his atruck him over the head with some kind of slung shot while sitting in the buggy. Neal was knocked out of the buggy, but regained his feet and escaped, reaching the residence of George Cline with two severe wounds upon the head, one extending to the skull, i McCullough drove to this city and claimed that he had been robbed by Neal, and had the latter arrested. It might be proper to add that at Neal's examination he was eleared and such avidence produced as to As Spring approaches there is a very market cleared, and such evidence produced as to indicate McCullough as the guilty party.—

programme: MusiaOrchestra Introductory Remarks. ... Rev A C Fairchild

To conclude with a "Mikado Entertain-ment," consisting of selections from the "Mikado" Opera (characters sustained by some of Eugene's best musical talent), Japanese tumbling, Recitation, etc. Admission, 25 cents. HOLSTEIN COWS .- Mr Norris Humphrey last Thursday morning received from Yam-hill county, two two year old Holstein theirers, with their calves, all of which he purchased last October. There are the first thorough bred cows of this stock ever brought to Lane county. They are as large as the average of four year old 'scrub' stock, and they are the best of dairy cows. Mr Humphrey by his introduction of the best breeds of stock is doing grand work in the development of our resources, and deserves the thanks of the commuty for the same.
