The Young Chinese Emperor.

The North China Daily News of July 12th gives the following account of an important show by the Emperor. An official notice was given to the Press in Peking showing that on the afternoon of the 15th, in the presence of the Emperor, a great exhibition of modern inventions will be opened by the Emperor himself. The exhibition will be held at the palace of the Emperor and will be open to the public for two days. The exhibition will be divided into two sections, the Arts and Sciences section and the Industrial Arts section. The Arts and Sciences section will include a great variety of inventions, including new machines for agricultural and mining purposes, new methods of manufacturing, and new forms of transportation. The Industrial Arts section will include a great variety of inventions, including new machines for manufacturing and new forms of transportation. The exhibition will be opened to the public on July 15th. The exhibition will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on the first day, and from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on the second day. The entrance ticket will be 10 cents. The exhibition will be closed on the 17th.
