Mr Cleveland. He declares that the President is stronger than he was two years ago and two years hence will be stronger than he is now; also, that all the Independents are glad they voted for him, while many Republicans are sorry they voted against him,

Samuel J Tilden's state papers were surpassed by none and equaled by few in ability. The men who cheated him out of the presidency, the position to which he was elected by over 250,000 majority, can now hang their heads in shame for the dark blot they placed on the fair name and fame of the nation.

A school teacher at Leignitz, Germany, desiring her pupils to have a little occupation during vacation, gave them this holiday exercise: "From 880,788,889, deduct 629 until nothing remains." After the girls had been working for some time, their friends began to figure out the prospects, and

"The Democratic president," says the Louisville Courier Journal, "has made himself famous by his vetoes. Some think this tendency to use the voto so often is a sort of disease with Mr Cleveland. Should this disease become opidemic and spread to the governors of latures will decline to the extent that it may become difficult to find statesmen enough to fill them."

Indiana, this fall, elects a legislature which will choose a United States ready for rain if must come. Senator to succeed Benjamin Harrison, who owes his present position entirely to the fact that his grandfather was once, for a short time, president of the United States. The Democrats have an excellent chance of carrying the legislature, and they will do so if wise councils and harmony prevail. In this event the two prominent candidates, either of whom will probably capture the prize, will be Governor Gray and ex-Senator McDonald.

The new silver certificates will be beautiful specimens of the printing and engraving art. The ten dollar certificate will bear a large vignette portrait Hendricks; the one dollar, a copy of the Stuart portrait of Martha Washington, and the two dollar certificate, a being a correspondent either. I am in duty any house in this part of the valley. Call Hancock, taken from a photograph selected by the family of the famous soldier, presenting him in the form of a major-general. It is believed that it learn a lesson before your next attempt at will be practically impossible to imitate manship.

Mr James C Matthews as recorder of ities think of you? How they must, perhaps, deeds for the District of Columbia, in place of Fred Douglas, the Springfield writing is a blot upon your name Republican has these very sensible words to say: The President stands by and nothing but the truth, while you, the colored brother resclutely. In spite of the non-consent of the Senate, he has commissioned Matthews to be recorder of deeds for the District of nomination is December. There is apparently no question of Matthews' character and fitness. The only objection to him is on account of his color. The Republican Senators do not object to black men as such, provided they are true to the grand old party; but a black Democrat they regard as a dangerous man, and to give him an officis altogether wrone. As Senator is altogether wrong. As Senator Ingalls expressed it, it would be "had politica" to allow a Democratic administration to give a colored man a good office. It was on this ground that Matthews' nomination was rejected, and the President is so little—or so much—impressed with the Ingalls style on the market, for Coughs, Coops, Coops and Drive St. Coops an istration to give a colored man a good of politics that he has appointed Mat. Primary Consumption. Price 50 cents thews not withstanding. If this should lead to a controversy with the Senate we shall have the interesting spectacle of a Democratic president championing the black man's rights to political recognition against the narrow proscrip tion of Republican Senators.

Congressmen and their Salaries.

When a member dies his pay ceases on the day of his death. The salary of the decta of Tilden, whom he characterizes as a great man and always a patriot.

Tilden goes to his last rest revered by all his countrymen. Hayes, the fraudulent president, is ignored and despised even by his own party.

A fund, amounting to $46,000, has been raised for Mrs W S Hancock. In this particular instance it cannot be said that Republics are ungrateful.

President Cleveland and wife are taking their summer vacation. The beam of the moments of the firm oney in different ways. There are probably twenty of the present time and safe return to the White Hosc C F Black has been named and safe return to the White Hosc C the death of Tilden, whom he characthe decease of the former member, affray yet printed:
