Dec 28, '86. Last Tuesday evening proved to be a most pleasant one to young and old, residents of our social loving people. The Masons adjourned to the well known and popular headquarters of Matt Wilkins, where over various viands the past, present, and "some of the future" was discussed. Suddenly the reigning quiet was broken by the announcement that their presence was wanted at the ever hospitable and pleasant home of Col F W Folsom, where joillest growd of surprisers that ever assembled in Junction were industriing in vocal and instrumental music, dancing, and whist. To say that all enjoyed them Phetographs finished neatly and artise selves would be adding nothing to the established reputation of entertaining, of either host or hostess. Among those who assembled and whose names are known to the writer were the following : Mr and Mrs James Hoffman, Mr and Mrs James Milliorn, Mr and Mrs James Casteel, Mrs Pearson, Mrs Craw, Mrs Baxton and daughter Winne, Misses Jennie and Neihe Caldwell, the Misses Powell of East Portland, gueste of Miss Knite Pickett, also a member: the Misses Allie Page, Jennie Bushnell, Clara
