Hibbs made a speech, thanking all the officers and counsel individually. He said he had nothing to say against the witnesses save J. J. Murphy, expostal inspector, whose statements, he said, were lies from end to end.

A team of horses ran away in Southern California recently and headed for the mountains. They rau into a canyon and followed it until it narrowed so that the animals were fully wedged between two rocks and could not move in either direction. Here they were found six days later, and barring being very hungry and in the Anaheim (Cal.) cellars tired, they were none the worse for their experience.

Some of the leading business men of San Jose, Cal., have decided to charter trains over the Central Pacific Railroad to make monthly trips from the East to carry passengers free. The object is to bring people of means to San Jose, and to cause them to make investments there. The promoters of the scheme propose to raise money for the trips by taxing each business man in the county $1.

A dynamite cartridge was placed in a cable slot on the Larkin street branch of the Sutter street railway, at San Francisco, and exploded. Basalt rocks on either side of the street were found to be loosened, and the masonry badly shattered. The pulleys upon which the cable runs were also broken, and the foundation of the tunnel cracked. Window panes in the vicinity were rattled violently at the time of the explosion, and in many cases shattered. In a saloon two blocks away a lighted lamp was thrown to the floor and nearly caused a conflagration. The iron plates of the manholes of the track were found 200 day a horse race was made feet away, to which distance they were hurled. It is charged that the street car strikers are responsible for the explosion.
