

Le Bland's Triumph of Art.

M. Le Bland, if his story is accepted was once chief cook to a Parisian nobleman. Now he keeps a West Side boarding house. For days before Christmas he treated his guests to mouth-watering descriptions of "Ze magnifique dinnar on ze Christmas da in La Belle France." A few days before Christmas he became very mysterious, and intimated that those fortunate mortals who sat at his board should also have a "magnifique dinnar." Accordingly anticipations ran high.

The day at last arrived. His promises were fulfilled. The table was loaded with an embarrassment of good things. One dish especially was a favorite and that it was so seemed to give monsieur great delight. It seemed a species of game, was delicately flavored but no one knew exactly what it was.

"Oh, monsieur, do tell us what this delicious meat is," said pretty Miss H. when the dish was demolished.

"Zat, madam, zat eis ze grand triumph of ze art. Only ze Frenchmen mak ze delicious dinnar—zat eis ze zat you call ze owl—ze pot owl."

"Owl!" exclaimed a chorus of voices and a dozen wry faces were made.

"Why, you were not so cruel as to kill the poor owl!" exclaimed Miss H.

"It eis you zat make ze cruel accusation, madam, I no keel him—he die."

Head Foremost.

There is a superstition among railroad men that if a corpse be removed from a train head-foremost bad luck to the train will surely result. Christmas Day the afternoon southbound passenger on the Central Railroad met with an accident between Hampton and Griffin. The accident was caused by a broken axle on the baggage car.

When the train was about leaving Atlanta a corpse was placed on the baggage car, to be taken to Forest. At that station the corpse was removed from the car head-foremost, notwithstanding the porter, Jack Burgess, vigorously protested. He told baggage-master John Eny that an accident would surely happen before the train reached Macon. "Sure enough, one did occur. As the baggage car bounced up and down on the track when the axle broke Jack shouted out: "What I tell yer, Mr. Eny! Didn't I tol' yer puttin dat dead man offen de eyar head fo'mos' was gwine to cause trouble! Reckon yer'll put de next one off wid his feet fut!"

It is safe to predict that Mr. Eny will follow Jack's advice next time.—Atlanta Constitution.

"Yes, young man," he went on solemnly, "liquor is a curse—mentally morally and physically it drags down and out." "Still," argued the young man, "some of our best men use it."

"Rutherford B. Hayes never touches liquor." "Do you mean the Ohio pouter?" "Yes," "Well, let's go somewhere and have a drink."

Twin Foes to Life

Are indigestion and Constipation. Their primary symptoms are among the most distressing of minor ailments, and a host of diseases, especially resulting from them, mutually aggravate each other and assail at once the whole machinery of life. Nausea, Foul Breath, Sour Stomach, Dizziness, Headaches, Bilious Fever, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Kidney Diseases, Piles, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dropsy, and various skin Disorders, are among the symptoms and maladies caused by derangement of the stomach and bowels.

A Thorough Purgative medicine is the first necessity for cure. Then the cathartic effect must be maintained in a mild degree, just sufficient to prevent a recurrence of costiveness, and at the same time the liver, kidneys and stomach must be stimulated and strengthened.

Ayer's Pills Accomplish this restorative work better than any other medicine. They are searching and thorough, yet mild, in their purgative action. They do not gripe the patient, and do not induce a craving for food, as is the effect of other cathartics. Whilst they possess special properties, diuretic, hepatic and tonic, of the highest medicinal value and Absolutely Cure All diseases proceeding from disorder of the digestive and assimilatory organs. The prompt use of AYER'S PILLS to correct the first indications of costiveness, averts the serious illnesses which result from that condition, and infallibly restores the system. All irregularities in the action of the bowels—looseness, as well as constipation—are beneficially controlled by AYER'S PILLS, and for the stimulation of digestive organs weakened by long-continued dyspepsia, one or two of AYER'S PILLS daily, after dinner, will do more good than anything else.

Leading Physicians Concede That AYER'S PILLS are the best of all cathartic medicines, and many practitioners, of the highest standing, customarily prescribe them.

C. F. HYD COMBINATION WIRE AND PICKET FENCE. Improved Combination

Patented May 22, 1883. No. 277,877. Wire and Picket Farm Fence and Machine for its Manufacture.

The Cheapest and Most Perfect Fence in Use. Pig Tight, Horse High, Cattle Strong; STEEL & WOOD INTERWOVEN.

We use from six to eight wires interwoven solidly, with from forty to fifty-five light wooden slats to the rod, thus producing a fence that will hold all stock, from the smallest pig to the largest head.

It is the most durable fence made, as the slats are in a vertical position, clear of the ground. There is no barbs to cut or mangle stock or tear the wool from your sheep. It is as visible to the eye as a board fence and ten times as strong. It will stand a side pressure of from 12,000 to 15,000 pounds.

It is woven or manufactured on the posts. One man and a boy can build from 40 to 60 rods in a day. Farmers can build their own fence and use material that would otherwise be lost or used as fuel, and thus save from $100 to $150 per mile.

We can refer to thousands of farmers in Kansas, Iowa and Missouri who are using our fence. We feel great pleasure in presenting this fence to the farmers of Lane County, filling as it does a want long felt. Being practical farmers we know what we say.

Accidents will happen, and when these come the Mustang Liniment is wanted at once. Keep a Bottle in the House. 'Tis the best of economy.

Keep a Bottle in the Factory. Its immediate use in case of accident saves pain and loss of wages. Keep a Bottle Always in the Stable for use when wanted.
