

EUGENE CITY GUARD.

S. L. CAMPBELL, Proprietor.

EUGENE CITY, OREGON.

ON THE PIAZZA.

ENGAGED. All the week she has sat, from morning till eve...

WEDDED. All the week she has waited and flirted and smiled...

"HE PLENTY SORRY."

Why an Indian Rajah "Made a Big Dinner?"

Some time ago, I being then an insignificant member of the army headquarters staff at Simla, the hill-capital of India, it became desirable to increase the number of hill stations...

Camp, did I say? It was very soon evident that there was to be no camp for me that evening, and what was still more objectionable, no supper.

Neither should too much attention be paid to the statements that some of these dishonest men have been very charitable. It is easy to be liberal with other people's money...

A Scotchman named W. Gemmill has invented a method of sending a picture by telegraph, by which a photograph taken at one end of the wire is transmitted and reproduced at the other.

HERRINGS FOR SARDINES.

What Nature Has Done for the French, Man Made for the Shrewd Yankee. The rich, spicy flavor of the French sardine was not there, but only the unmistakable taste of the native herring.

The herring of which sardines are made are never over four inches long, and the catching of the fish keeps hundreds of people busy along the coasts of Maine and New Brunswick.

The man smiled and explained "Deputy Commissioner Sahib he write to rajah this place and say: 'Very great General and two other sahibs coming see your country. Government want to put soldiers in your country when hot time comes, Good for you if Government do this, because Government pay you well, and country getting plenty rich.'"

Whom Shall We Trust in These Days of Dishonesty and Crime. "Whom shall we trust?" is an oft-repeated question nowadays, and it is one that is indeed hard to answer.

It is folly to try and excuse them by saying that they did not mean to be dishonest when they began. They know that they were doing wrong when they took the first dollar, and they did not take it almost unconsciously, as many of their apologists would have us believe.

Why No Man in a Position of Trust Should Be Allowed to Go Unwatched. One of the reasons for the numerous delinquencies that have caused such widespread dismay may be found in the fact that as a business people we are wont to place too much confidence in men holding responsible positions.

NEW YORK IS THE GREAT WHOLESALE CENTER for these Yankee sardines. Some idea of the magnitude of the business may be obtained when I tell you that one factory alone in Lubec, and there are others that are doing as big a business, made and sold nearly two million boxes of sardines last year.

A GIPSY WEDDING.

The Part Which the Broom-stick Played in the Ceremonies. Few things are more simple than a marriage ceremony among the Gypsies, and a description of a wedding as recently witnessed by the writer, will not, we believe, prove uninteresting.

The chief then called out the name of the bride, who came from a tent at the opposite side of the encampment. She was about nineteen years of age, rather short of stature, apparently of a healthy and hardy constitution, while the pearly luster of her eyes and long, dark, glossy hair seemed to identify her with the purest remnants of the Gypsy race.

BRIGHT.

This word, although in itself a cheerful one, is much used in connection with the worst evils known to the human race. The most important symptom of this disease is a discharge by the way of the kidneys of the albuminous substances which should remain in the blood to be the nourishment of the system.

His Own Ignorance. How a Philosophical Colored Man Considered a Victim. "Nat," said a State official, addressing an old negro, "I told you to bring me a 'possum.'"
