EUGENE CITY, OR, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1887.

NO. 26.

Notice Extraordinary!

BENEFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT!

After a continuous business experience of over 25 years I have, after due deliberation, decided to quit active business pursuits and have given Mr. Al. J. Houck, formerly of Houck Bros., Monroe, absolute control and management of my stock, consisting of over $15,000 worth of desirable merchandise, with authority to dispose of the same according to his judgment.

This is emphatically to be a legitimate sale, without any intermediate profit on seasonable goods. In this way I embrace the opportunity of showing to my former customers in a most convincing and substantial manner, that I fully appreciate their patronage and good will in the past. An important fact concerning this stock should be borne in mind:

IT IS NOT A SINGLE LOT OF GOODS, IT IS NOT A SINGLE DEPARTMENT TO WHICH YOU ARE INVITED, BUT THE ENTIRE STOCK COMBINED. FIND CONVINCING FIGURES APPENDED.

Mens and Boys shoes and clothing will not be rated until an order now placed in the East arrives; although Mens tweed suits and fine figures, are now offered at

TEN DOLLARS.

Heavy seamless socks $1.29 per doz; Underwear from 75 cts to $1.50 per suit; Syrup 54 cts per can; Rice 18 lbs for $1.00. Fluctuating Sugar and Coffee market does not justify us in quoting either at present.

We will begin the 20th inst. to offer all goods now in stock at prices corresponding with the above,

Which are no baits, neither are they misrepresentations.

When coming to purchase would request presentation of this list in order to prove that we will do what we advertise. Produce will be taken in exchange, and all will be treated alike.

MORE NEXT WEEK OR WEEK AFTER.

W. H. BABER.
