Query.

The question is, by what authority has the erisiature of the State of Oregon to approwiste $1,500 of the people's money for the return of the body of the late deceased ex-Govare of the body of the late deceased ex-Gov-erer Gibbs, to this State for interment. Was libbs in Reciand working f r and in the in-terest of this State? We say nay. He went there in his own private interests, and should return in his own private and legitimate way. When he was thevernor of this State did he sat receive his salary in full for services ren-level. Then what does the peouls of the ed! Then what does the people ove him note than the debt of gratfunde which is freely iven to all of her servants who perform their same right and reason the Legislature hould and might send for any other man who wight die in a foreign land or out of this State steeted to office it is only to not nor a statest priod, and that the people do not agree by his lection that they will forever thereafter take are of them. We do not make Lords, Dukes r Burons of our officers in this country. This nove on the part of the Legislature will be etting a hal example, and may establish a coolent that would be brought to bear in see hereafter. The Adams plan was the corseed atterine of their own private means for instant. This thing of voting out the pen-let many for dead men (that are of no value) ing too common. Two $100 bills were found in a pile of snow off the curb in front of a Chinese store on Second and Pine and two more within ten feet of each other on the street west of First on Pine. Toe fifth bill was fourd by a 7-year-old boy, who was gazing at it. The youth returned the green-back to the owner and received one dollar.—Portland Exchange.
